The Richmond Enquirer, of the 10th inst., says the office, types and press-es of the Baleigh Standard, edited by Wm. Holden, have been destroyed by a party of Georgia soldiers. Mr. Holden was in Petersburg at the time. In return

CHARLESTON, September-9. The enemy is silent to-day. Gen. Beauregard refuses to have any communication with the Yankee flag of truce until an explana-tion is given of their firing on onr flag of trace.

We took the original flag of Fort Sam ter which Major Anderson was compelled to lower and which Dahlgren had hoped to have replaced.

CHARLESTON, September 10 .- There was no firing last night, except from our that the batteries. The enemy is working hard on batteries. The enemy is working bard on Morris Island. All is quiet this morning.

ATLANTA, September 8 .-- Our cavalry fronts the enemy near Athens. There is nothing from Chattanooga to day. Extured on the walls of Fort Sumter: Lieut. E. P. Williams, Lient. T. W. Preston

Lieut. G. C, Reamy, Lieut. D. L. Meade Lieut. Bradtord and Ensign B. H. Potter The latter was wounded. The Massachu setts leaves immediately for Philadelphia
