Jadge Maynard. Our readers will all, doubtless, recollect Judge Maynard, who, for a brief period, so ably and acceptably presided over one of the Courts in this county. In a recent charge to the grand jury of Lehigh county, referring to the state of affairs now existing in our county, the Judge lays down the true doctrine in a manner that cannot be misunderstood. He says:

| And generally do—a year and a half, always with perfect success. Oyster cans are equally good, only there will be a tin In this process, heat drives out the air, and the glass keeps it cut. CALISTHENICS.—The principles of exer cise embraced in the practice of Ca'isthenics have been but little understood, and less heeded, the result of which has lean anfortunate to many, particularly those who are delicately constituted. Any slight exertion on their part results in fatigue, and physical exhaustion. Even ls the effects of the want of physical strength, and there is a continual depression; want of energy, and irresistadepression, want of energy, and the desire to do nothing. This can all be obvisted by proper exercise. The exercise embraced in the practice of Calisthenics is well adapted to insure a healthful and vigorous condition of the system. A young lady in Chieago, who, one year ago, was suffering from the effects of want of energy, or physical power, to support energetic efforts, is now, after one years' energetic efforts, is now, after one years' practice of this kind of exercise, enabled practice of this kind of exercise, enabled.

cribes with so much elegance and pathos, viz:

A Mother's Love, Resignation and Despair:]

MY WILLIE IS DEAD.

"Great battle—Times extra!" the newsboy cried But it scarcely rippled the living tide
That ebbed and flowed in the busy street,
With its the abbits.

And the little carrier hurried away

O, I feared it was not an idle dream

And the swift destroyer had left no trace

But a little wound, and a purple stain.

And covered him up with reaking sand.

"Wilsie, () Willie!" it seems but a day
