This address conclu-tion of the inordinate and increasing patronage and power of the Erecutive, proceeds to Francis B. Shunk. This address couch-ded with the following noble words, which make it beat with fresh enthusiasm for the flag and Union of our fathers. Read them, and contrast the ring of the true patriot's voice with the mercenary and marketable stuff which we hear now-adays from shoddy contractors, plunderers, thieves, debauched and slavish Governors, and other people of that loyal school who are gorging on the vitals of the nation while they affect to be the special custo-than of the passage in Mr. Webster is that of a blind, rear gorging on the vitals of the nation while they affect to be the special custo-sylvania lay these solemn and glorious words to heart, and remember that the good man who uttered them in the days of our peace and prosperity is now revited by Cartin and all the noble army ot con-tractors as disloyal: Fellow Citizens—Before we part from this hallowed ground, let us revive a few the show we are subilime contempt to sever a spiration and party that now for all constitutional restraints and the reserved rights of the people of the States.

tractors as distoyal: Fellow-Citizens-Before we part from this hallowed ground, let us revive a few place. These trained bands, this martial music, those floating hanners, and the Declars. I do draw strict lines of party distinction recollections appropriate to the time and place. These trained bands, this martial music, these floating banners, and the Declara-ation of Independence to which we have just listened, reminds cs of the Revolu-tionary struggles of our fathers. Had er-er a people such an ancestry to cherish in proud remembrance! Their names and their deeds, written in the chronicles, are recorded for our instruction and that of to aration, ancient or modern. We chal-lenge Earth and say, 'none but themselves can be their parallel.' And is not the eagle, with outspread wings, suggestive of memories which we should delight to cherish? Over every battle-field, from Lexington to Chepulte-peo, that king of birds has presided as the genius of the place. Tower server is a stablished and con-time are still other modes by which executive power is established and con-timed. The first thing it seeks to do is to draw strict lines of party distinction, and then to appeal to the party feelings of men. This is a topic which might lead me very far into an inquiry as to the cau-ses which have overturned all popular governaments. It is the nature of men to be credulous and confiding towards their friends. If there exists in the country a powerful party, and if the bead of that party, gives thanks for the public honors he has received, not to the country, but to his party, then we can see the cause in opera-tion, which, according to the well-known character and tendencies of man, lead us to give undue trust and confidence to party favorites. Why, gentlemen, Kings and there have due there favorites, and they there have due there favorites, and they wings, suggestive of memories which we should delight to cherish? Over every battle field, from Lexington to Chepulte-peo, that king of birds has presided as the genius of the place. Towering in his pride of height, he has witnessed undismayed the clash of arms, and heard the roar of battle. Proudly has he soared in the fre-quent hour of victory, and bravely has he borne the calamities of occasional defeat. Mounting to his place in mid air, on the sth day of Jaly, 1776, he has seen our country rise from prostration and poverty to giant strength and affluence; our peo-ple increase from three millions to twenty-three millions; our revenues grow up from nothing to forty millions of dollars annually; our thriteen States multiply in-to thirty, and our theriter area with our of victory and states multiply in-to thirty, and our theriter area with a vice states multiply in-to thirty, and our theriter area with the states multiply in-to thirty, and our theriter area with our of victory with the states multiply in-to thirty, and our theriter area with the states multiply in-to thirty, and our theriter area with the states multiply in-to thirty, and our theriter area with the states multiply in-the thirty and our theriter area with the states multiply in-the thirty and our theriter area with the states multiply in-the thirty and our theriter area with the states multiply in-the thirty and our theriter area with the states multiply in-this head the states multiply in-the with the states multiply infrom nothing to forty millions of dollars annually; our thirteen States multiply in-to thirty, and our territory expanding from the Atlantic westward over mountains, and rivers, and valleys, and prairies, to the shores of the Pacific, and then pitch-ing into mejestic flight, he has borne the bannar of ireedom over every sea, and in-to every clime; he has unrolled the char-ter of human rights and taught the op-pressed of all nations to conquer freedom, or, failing, to come to the land of the free. And now he spreads his wings peaceful-ly over us-ashelter from the heat, and arrise are many, but that glorious bird is one:+-t

Having had a man employed for the last six years compounding the above excellent romedies for my own practice, and having used them with uncommon success in all that time. I feel it a duty to set them before the public, as my expe-rience leads me to think they are as near specifics as any remedies well can be for the following diseases, namely: Scrofula, Coirre, Syphilis, and all diseases that arise from an impure state of the blood. One trial will convice any person of their fitness for those diseases. Propared and sold by J. W. BRANSTRUP, M. D. jy18tf 85 Smithfield st. Pittsburgh, Pa.
