The whole scope and tenor of his Excellency's speech was one of indiscriminate praise of himself, setting forth the great efforts he had made to save the Union—so great indeed, that in the out-set of his speech he declared that his health had failed him and his hair had become prematurely gray. But not a word had he to say to the charges of the Gathe party in this county. He made no reference to the "shoddy contracts," and the thousand and one other changes and one other changes. the thousand and one other charges made against him in that paper. Fo far as Crude was ouncerned, holders were firm at the late advance. A few hundred bris were disposed of at full rates. Holders of Crude at Oil City, and at the wells are demanding extravagant prices and are indifferent about selling at any price. The rates of freight between Oil City and Pittsburgh, are very bigh; some are asking $1,75 per brl. In Nev York, the market was un settled. Crude was not very active, whilst Refined, both free and Branded was nominal. The exports east foot up s follows:

To New York, Refined, 873; T-r. 31; Crude, 25 brls. To Philade phi — Refined, 187; Benzole, 41; tatal 1157. The exports west were only 196 brls.

The imports during the same period were, per A. V. R. Road 607 brls, per Allegheny River A V. R. Road 607 bris, per Allegheny River 152 bris.

Crude—The following were all the sales we could learn of viz. 250 bris. packages to be returned at 25½; 300 bris do; 25½; which special and avence: 400 bris do; 25½; which specified be the ruling figure.

Refixed—The demand was limited. Helders were firm, and were in a hurry to force matters. The sales were the following; 200 bris of Free Oil immediate delivery, at 63c; 50 bris do Straw at 61c. The asking rates for Branded, immediate delivery, was 53@54, for future delivery, October and November, 56@58c. Benzole was not enquired for, the nomical rates of deoderized was
