EXAMINE THE RECORD.

Is the Republican Party Responsible for this War?

Without the fear of successful contradiction, we answer that the Republican party, aided by the Secession party of the South, is responsible for the war. It had the power to prevent war, although it lacks the ability to conduct it.

As proof of what we assert, we quote from the speech of Stephen A. Douglas, delivered in the United States Senate, January 3d, 1861, on the compromise measures then pending before that body:

I believe this to be a fair basis of amicable adjustment. If you of the Republican side are not willing to accept this, nor the proposition of the Senator from Kentucky, (Mr. Crittenden) pray tell us what you are willing to do?

I ADDRESS THE INQUIRY TO REPUBLICANS ONLY, FOR THE REASON THAT IN THE COMMITTEE OF THIRTEEN, A FEW DAYS AGO, EVERY MEMBER FROM THE SOUTH, INCLUDING THOSE FROM THE COTTON STATES (MESSRS. TOOMBS AND DAVIS) EXPRESSED THEIR READINESS TO ACCEPT THE PROPOSITION OF MY VENERABLE FRIEND FROM KENTUCKY (MR. CRITTENDEN) AS A FINAL SETTLEMENT OF THE CONTROVERSY, IF INTENDED AND SUSTAINED BY THE REPUBLICAN MEMBERS.

HENCE THE SOLE RESPONSIBILITY OF OUR DISAGREEMENT, AND THE ONLY DIFFCULTY IN THE WAY OF AN AMICABLE ADJUSTMENT IS WITH THE REPUBLICAN PARTY."

Republicans will surely not discredit one whom they so frequently eulogize and from whom they occasionally quote. Mr. Douglas boldly charged the responsibility on them, and they had not the hardihood to deny it.

Hon. Mr. Dawes, Republican member of Congress from Massachusetts, made the following confession in the House, on the 27th of April, 1862:

"THE GENTLEMAN MUST REMEMBER THAT IN THE FIRST YEAR OF A REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION WHICH CAME INTO POWER UPON PROFESSIONS OF REFORM AND RETRENCHMENT, THERE IS INDUBITABLE EVIDENCE ABROAD IN THE LAND THAT SOMEBODY HAS PLUNDERED THE PUBLIC TREASURY WELL NIGH IN THAT SINGLE YEAR, AS MUCH AS THE ENTIRE CURRENT YEARLY EXPENSES OF THE GOVERNMENT DURING THE ADMINISTRATION WHICH THE PEOPLE HURLED FROM POWER BECAUSE OF ITS CORRUPTION."

Here is the testimony of an ardent Republican.

THE OPINIONS OF THE FATHERS.

Mr. Jefferson wrote to Mr. Short, April 18th, 1820:

"The Missouri question is the most portentious one which ever yet threatened our Union. In the gloomiest moment of the Revolutionary War, I never had any apprehension equal to that which I feel from this source."

Listen to Daniel Webster.

"IF THESE INFERNAL FANATICS AND ABOLITIONISTS EVER GET THE POWER IN THEIR HANDS, THEY WILL OVERRIDE THE CONSTITUTION, SET THE SUPREME COURT AT DEFIANCE, CHANGE AND MAKE LAWS TO SUIT THEMSELVES, LAY VIOLENT HANDS ON THOSE WHO DIFFER WITH THEM IN OPINION, OR DARE QUESTION THEIR FIDELITY, AND FINALLY BANKRUPT THE COUNTRY AND DELUGE IT WITH BLOOD."

LET HENRY CLAY SPEAK.

In the Senate Mr. Clay said in relation to Abolitionism:

"To the agency of their power of persuasion, they now propose to substitute the power of the ballot-box; and he must be blind to what is passing before us, who does not perceive that the inevitable tendency of their proceedings is, if these should be found insufficient, to invoke finally, the more potent powers of the bayonet."

How true have Mr. Clay's words proved.

"I ORDER AND DECLARE THAT ALL PERSONS HELD AS SLAVES IN THE SAID STATES AND PARTS OF STATES ARE AND HEREAFTER SHALL BE FREE.—Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation.

Then on This.

☞ "NEITHER THE PRESIDENT NOR CONGRESS CAN EMANCIPATE SLAVES ANY MORE THAN THEY CAN GRANT BILLS OF DIVORCE."—Ex-Gov. Henry Dutton

☞ "I HAVE NO PURPOSE, DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY, TO INTERFERE WITH THE INSTITUTION OF SLAVERY IN THE STATES WHERE IT EXISTS, AND I HAVE NO INCLINATION TO DO SO."—President Lincoln's Inaugural Address.

☞ "The fact can no longer be disguised that many of the Republican Senators desire war and disunion, under pretext of saving the Union. They wish to get rid of the Southern States, in order to have a majority in the Senate to confirm the appointments, and many of them think they can hold a permanent Republican majority in the Northern States, but not in the whole Union; for partisan reasons they are anxious to dissolve the Union, if it can be done without holding them responsible before the people."—Stephen A. Douglas in the U. S. Senate, Dec. 25, 1860.

SECRETATY SEWARD'S POWER.—The Secretary of State, while endeavoring to vindicate the vitality of the Federal Government to Lord Lyons, illustrated his position by saying:

MY LORD, I CAN TOUCH A BELL ON MY RIGHT HAND AND ORDER THE ARREST OF A CITIZEN IN OHIO. I CAN TOUCH THE BELL AGAIN AND ORDER THE IMPRISONMENT OF A CITIZEN IN NEW YORK, AND NO POWER ON EARTH BUT THAT OF THE PRESIDENT CAN RELEASE THEM. CAN THE QUEEN OF ENGLAND IN HER DOMINIONS, DO AS MUCH?

In February, 1863, Horace Greeley wrote a leader for the Tribune, in which appears the following language:

"Speaking for ourselves, we can honestly say that for the old Union, which was kept in existence by Southern menaces and Northern Concessions, we have no regrets and no wish for its reconstruction.

Who wants a Union which is nothing but a sentiment to lacquer Fourth of July orations with?

"If by chance, in ancient times, the criminal felt the loathsome corpse, which justice had tied upon his shoulders, slipping off—he did not, we fancy cry out: O wretched man that I am! who will fasten me again to the body of this death? 'if we are, in the providence of God, to be delivered from unnatural-alliances—if the January of slavery is no longer to chill by natural embraces the May of human hope, who is there weak and wicked enough to forbid the righteous divorce?"

Copperheads.

In August, 1857, Hon. S P. Chase made use of the following language in a public speech:

We have a right to have our State laws obeyed. We don't mean to resis: Federal authority. Just or unjust laws, properly administered, will be respected. If dissatisfied, we will go to the ballot box and redress our wrongs. BUT WE HAVE RIGHTS WHICH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT MUST NOT INVADE—RIGHTS SUPERIOR TO ITS POWER, OF WHICH OUR SOVEREIGNTY DEPENDS, AND WE DO MEAN TO ASSERT THESE RIGHTS AGAINST ALL TYRANNICAL ASSUMPTIONS OF AUTHORITY.

☞ That old line whig paper, the New York Journal of Commerce, has condensed American sentiment upon an exciting topic into the following short extract:

"We all agree that the forcible destruction of a newspaper published in the free city of Chicago, several hundred miles from the seat of war, was unjustifiable, and therefore a great wrong. On this point Americans cannot differ. The man who attempts to justify it IS NO AMERICAN!"

Mr. Conway, of Kansas, one of the most talented Republicans in the country, remarked in a speech made in the House last Spring:

"This is an immense sacrifice we are making for freedom and Union: and yet, it is all to be squandered upon a subterfuge and a cheat? For one, I shall not vote another dollar or a man for the war until it assumes a standing, and tends directly to an anti-slavery result."

"I will continue to experiment no longer, it is all madness. Let the Slaveholding Union go, and slavery will go with the Union down into the dust. If the Church is against disunion, and not on the side of the slave, then I pronounce it as of the devil.

I say, let us cease striking hands with thieves and adulters, and give to the wind the rallying cry, no union with slaveholders, socially or religiously, and up with the flag of disunion."—Wm. L. Garrison.

"We confess that we intend to trample under foot the Constitution of this country. Daniel Webster says:

'You are law-abiding people: that the glory of New England is, that it is a law abiding community.' Shame on it, if this be true: if even the religion of New England sinks as low as its statute book. But I say we are not a law abiding community. God be thanked for it?"—Wendell Phillips.

Latest News from the South.

The Richmond Sentinel of the 12th inst., has the following:

All quiet in the neighborhood of Fredericksburg, and apparently no prospect of a fight unless we assume the offensive.—The Yankee sutlers have moved back towards Manassas, where the Federal troops are said to be building fortifications and commissary storehouses, as with the intention of making it a base. Meade's army has been reduced considerably. It consists of seven corps. Yankee cavalry, dressed in Confederate uniforms, are scouring the country through Stafford and Prince William, arresting deserters from Meade's army. The above we know to be reliable.

JOHN MITCHEL'S SON.

We learn that William Mitchel, youngest son of John Mitchel, Esq., editor of the Enquirer, who was reported missing after the battle of Gettysburg, is now believed to have been killed in that hard-fought struggle. Young Mitchel was only eighteen years old, and is represented to have been a young gentleman of fine attainments and an excellent soldier, and behaved with especial gallantry at Gettysburg. He has two brothers in the Confederate service.—Sentinel, 12th.

VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE.

In the Virginia Senate, on the 10th, there was a protracted debate on a series of resolutions introduced by Mr. Collier, proposing to submit an address to the Northern States in favor of some sort of conference or arbitration looking to peace. In support of his resolutions, Mr. Collier said he "did not believe that Virginia had done all that could have been done to avert the war," but this was indignantly resented by the Senate and the resolutions were indefinitely postponed by a vote of 88 to 1.

A bill to outlaw rebel deserters has been introduced in the Virginia Senate. A bill has also been reported authorizing the receipt of Confederate States Treasury notes in payment of taxes and other public dues to the State.

A bill to exclude from citizenship all who, since April, 1861, held office or rendered service under the United States authorities, or under any illegal or usurped government, has been introduced into the House.

RICHMOND MARKETS.

Tomatoes are selling in Richmond at fifty cents a quart; Irish potatoes and peas at the same price; sweet potatoes at one dollar a quart (the Whig reporter counted six in a quart measure, making the cost one shilling each;) and corn at $1,50 a dozen. In meats, the same exorbitant rates prevail. "Cuts of middling are selling at $2,50 a pound, joints at $2,25," salt shad at $2,75 each, and herrings $3 a dozen. Butter is $4 a pound, and eggs $2 a dozen.

THE PRICE OF GOLD.

The Whig says:

The brokers quote the premium for gold as follows: Buying rate $10 (ten for one;) selling rate $12@$13. Parties who sell gold on commission are offering it at $9 premium, or ten for one, and silver at $7 premium. It is said by those conversant with the market that the demand for gold at this time is so limited that any considerable amount offered for sale would not find a purchaser at $10. The business is confined at present to small amounts.—The Legislature will shortly decide this question whether the traffic in gold in this State shall be suppressed.

BREAD RIOT IN MOBILE.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 11.—Refugees who have lately arrived within our lines bring exciting reports of the terrible condition of affairs in the South.

One man who left Mobile on the 5th, states that a terrible riot broke out among the soldiers' wives at Mobile, on the 4th. About six hundred women and children collected on Spring Hill, armed with clubs and hatchets, and marched through the principal streets, carrying banners, on which were inscribed "Bread or Blood!" "Bread or Peace!" &c. Being soldiers' wives, their proceedings were winked at by the soldiers, who made but a feeble resistance. Stores were broken open and forcibly entered. Many citizens left town, among whom was our informant, who says the riot was increasing when he left.

THEY CONTAIN

NO ALCOHOL OR BAD WHISKY

They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

Induced by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable) hosts of ignorant quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with inferior drugs and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles, and big-bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing only aggravates diseases and leave the disappointed sufferers in despair.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale, are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent

Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians and Citizens,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

DO YOU WANT SOMETHING to STRENGTHEN YOU?
DO YOU WANT A GOOD APPETITE?
DO YOU WANT TO BUILD UP YOUR CONSTITUTION?
DO YOU WANT TO FEEL WELL?
DO YOU WANT TO GET RID OF NERVOUSNESS?
DO YOU WANT ENERGY?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If you do, use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

These class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the results is the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt, Get the Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and mix with Three Quarts of good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION SOLDIERS,

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposure and hardships incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers hundreds of lives might be saved, that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of he nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own ang uage "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PITTSBURGH, August 23d, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognisant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, under the immediate command of Capt. R B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflamation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 25th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working fai hfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and I vis ted me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Nusbaum, of 66th below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentleman, I am a loyal Virginian, 12 m the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly, yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

SURGEON GENERAL HAMMOND, by ordering calomel and destructive minerals from the supply tables, has conferred a blessing on our sick soldiers. Let him not stop here. Let him order the discontinuance of "Bleeding," and the substitution of Brandreth's Pills in the place thereof. Then will commence a "new era" in the practice of Medicine, which would then become emphatically

THE HEALING ART.

I have for thirty years taught that no diseased action could be cured by mercury or tartaric emetic. That the human body could only be "made whole" by "vegetable food"—Animal food being, in fact, only condensed vegetables. Brandreth's Pills should be in every military hospital. There Pills cure Bilious Diarrhea, Chronic Diarrhea, Chronic Dysentery, all Fevers and Affections of the Bowels, sooner and more surely than any medicine in the world. Brandreth's Pills in these cases should be taken night and morning. Read Directions and get one style.

CASE OF ROSCOE K. WATSON.

Dr. B. Brandreth,—New York:

SIR,—I was a private in Co. F, 17th Regiment, New York Vols. While at Harrison's Landing, and on the Rappahannock near Falmouth, I and many of the Company were sick with bilious diarrhea. The Army Surgeon did not cure us, and I was reduced to skin and bone. Among the company were quite a number of members who had worked in your Laboratory at Sing Sing. They were not sick, because they used Brandreth's Pills. These men prevailed upon me and others to use the Pill, and we were all cured in from two to five days. After this our boys used Brandreth's Pills for the typhus fever, colds, rheumatism, and in no case did they fail to restore health.

Out of gratitude to you for my good health, I send you this letter, which if necessary, the entire company would sign.

I am, respectfully yours,
