Against these mad and infamous proceedings, the conservative men of the North, of all parties, protested. In December, four months before the firing upon Fort Sumter, the citizens of Philadelphia assembled in mass meeting, Mayor Henry presiding. At that gathering Judge Wood ward spoke, lamenting the threatened danger. Conservative Republicans as well as Democrats were present, all anxious, by speeches and resolutions. to assure the South that the great body of our people were not inimical to them or to their institutions. The speech of Judge Woodward was, for the occasion, an admirable production, but the Abolition press of the present day, like miserable pettifoggers, are engaged in stealing from it disjointed paragraphs, and torturing them to suit their purposes. The Pittsburgh Commercial is no better in this respect than the meanest of its Abolition contemporaries. The speech, we repeat, from which the Commercial quotes, was an admirable one for the time and the occasion of its delivery. Had the Abolitionists been actuated by one-tenth of the love of country which prompted its atterance, our then, happy country, would not now be in the horrors of bloody war and desolation. But, why does not the Commercial publish the whole of the speech in question? If it be genertion of three or four columns, and tortur ing them from the meaning evidently intended by their author, is, we submit no better than naked forgery. But will

people of our city, has already forfeited its claim to that distinction ; it is merely wagish. Yesterday, after announcing that the abolition meeting of Wednesday numbered 20,000, it informed its geaders that this county will give Curtin 8,000 tha jurity-but it advised its friends to not bet on more than 7,000. The convention was the most lamentable failure of the kind that ever came off in this county, there peeches consisted in balderdash from Curtin, and profanity and falsehood in general. As a specimen of the vile stuff perpetrated upon an unoffending people, with the thermometer at ninety, was Thos. J. AWARDED TO THE WHEELER & WILSON Sewing Machines LONDON AND PARIS EXHIBITIONS.

is equal to the sale of all others combined, arising from its adaptability to all kinds of Sewing. As proof, read the following from Douglass & therwood, the well known Shirt Manufacture. ers. We have used the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine in our - kirt Manufectory since January 20th, 1855. It has indeed created our business. After testing the principal mechines before the public we selected yours. We commenced with one, ter testing the principal machines before the public we selected yours. We commenced with one, and are now runing one hundred and seventy-two of the a. We are running one hundred of your machines in one room, and yet such is the quietness, that conve sation can be carried on in an orainary tone of voice. They are isdapted to every portion of our work; sewing equally well upon the lightest muslin and our heaviest work, consisting of nine thickness s, five of them being of hair cloth, two of common cotton cloth, and two of starched tape. Its speed is unexampled. With one, a person can accomplish as much as it welve persons without it, and twice as much as it welve persons without it, and twice as much as it welve persons without it, and twice as much as it was a continuated and fifty yard per hour. The fatigue is so slight tast our employees work the year round in good health and spirits. We cannot too highly rec mmend Whee er & Wilson's Machines, and our opinions are shared by all Manufacturers of experience and judgement, with wh m we come in contact."

Also, from the United Presulterian of Sept. 10; "Alter more than one years experience, we can corthally recommend to our friends Wheeler' & Wilson's 'ewing Machines as one of the most useful pieces of household furniture with which any house can be supplied. It is the last thing in our dimertic institution that we would part with. Every machine warranted for three years, Call and see them in operation and obtain our descriptive circular WM. SUMNER & Co.
