NEW YORK, September 18 .-- The Par correspondent of the New York Times writes from Paris September 4th as follows:—A most important change has taken place in European affairs. The Emperor Napoleon has turned a somer Emperer Napoleon has turned a somer-set, and now lies in the dust at the feet of Prince Gortschakoff. His position of European dictator is at an end, and here-after he will have enough to do to take care of himself. His Majesty tried to carry England and Austria with him into a war with Russia and Prussia on the Polish question, and hoped by this war to conquer the Rhenish provinces, but his allies took alarm, and while England declared boldly she would not go to war for Poland. Austria went to work to organize the German Confederation against him.
About the same time there came t Paris a ; ositive assurance that Mr. C. M.
