He could say to them that Mr. CURTIN he Governor of Pennsylvania, now hoping he will never consent to let foreigners have any rolitical honors-and moreover, he is re elected, which will prove to be a very will endeavor to extend the period of nat uralization to twenty one years.

He might say to them that Judge Ao NEW, a candidate for high judicial office, would degrade the right of suffrage by giving it to NEGROES, though he is not averse to Mr. Curtin's notions about keeping foreign white men from voting for fourtean or twenty one years.

He might show them bow, if they are used to being taxed pretty sharply at home, they will have a glorious chance for being taxed here. Each one of them wil assume, when he becomes a citizen, a bur den of $172 of public debt for himself, and his children, if he have either, besides his pertion of the $172 for just as many peofore Friday, October 2d, in person, or they ple as can't pay for themselves.
