Allegheny County will do Her Duty

The Democracy of Allegheny County have long had a sufficient barrier-the strength of the opposition-to prevent them from giving that show of power pro per at public evations, which are so common in other counties of this Commonwealth; but yesterday, Convention day, and Beaver—300 strong.

One of the most noticeable features in Misses dressed in pure white, representing the States of the Union as they were once, and as it is the hope and determine ation of all democrats that they shall b agair. On one side of the wagon was the motto "We are for the Union, the Constitution and the Freedom of Speech," on the other: "The Union must be preserved in spits of Southern rebels or Northern Abspits of Sondiern revers of Notation An-olitionists." Many appropriate banners were carried in the procession bearing mottos suitable to the occasion, but we have not space to enumerate them.
