HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the same of Bitters, put up in quart bottlen, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gation, the taste disguised by Ansico or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to due the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and leath.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Butter, we publish the following receipt. Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters, and in the Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whishy, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

or more I was carcely able to swalow anything and if I did there a mored down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under those circumstances: and, accordingly the physicials who had been working itaithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and a lyised me to see a clergyman, and to make such aispection of my limited funds at best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of 6th below Arch Street, advised me as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters and kindly procured a bottle, From the time I commenced taking them the shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it getting better, Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained 10 pounds, and feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daugnter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentleman. I am aloyal Virginian, 13 m the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the glorious privilege of again clapping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly, rours. ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the abovestatement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

By the 24th the progress of Ewell rendered it necessary that the rest of the army should be in supporting distance, and Longstreet and Hill marched to the Potomac. The former crossed at Williamsport, and the latter at Shepardstown. The columns reunited at Hagerstown; and advanced thence into Pennsylvania, encamping near Chambersburg on the 27th.

No report had been received that the Federal army had crossed the Potomae and the absence of the cavalry rendered it impossible to obtain accurate information. In order, however, to retain a on the east side of the mountains after it should enter Maryland, and thus leave to send a division eastward from Chambersburg to cross the South Mountains. Gen. Rhodes marched from Berryville to Martinsburg, entering the latter place on the 14th, where he took seven hundred prisoners, five pieces of artillery and a considerable quantity of stores. These operations cleared the valley of the enemy, those at Harper's Ferry withdrawing to Maryland Heights. More than four thousand prisoners, twenty-nine pieces of artillery, two hundred and seventy wagons and ambulances, with four hundred horises were captured, besides a large amount of Gen. Meade, it was thought advisable of the ingitted that the same time the country was unfavorable for collecting supplies while in the presence of the enemy's main body, as he was enabled to restrain our foraging parties by occupying the passes of the mountains with regular and local troops.
