121 From the above table it will be seen that the two cities gave Curtin a cold of 3,649—the boroughs 1,132, and the townships 1,925, making Curtin's majori ty as far as heard from 6,706. Railway Case Argued, In the Court of Common Pleas yesterday, before Judges Sterrett and Stowe, the application for an injunction to restrain the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad Company from the prosecution of the construction of their tunnel through Country Figure 18, or the construction of their tunner inrough the city, came up for argument. John Quinn, esq., the plaintiff, alleged that the company had infringed on his property in the prosecution of their work as to do him At William Semple's.

strained in their work until restitution was made. John H. Hampton, esq., for the railroad company, exhibited the conflact great injury, and he asked that they be reof the company with the property holders along the line as to the amount of damges to be received by each. Mr. Quinn's property is mostly "made ground, and in the running of the company's line a portion of it fell in. For this additional damage he apply and the running of the company's line a portion of it fell in. age he seeks redress. But, as the com.

New Castle & Beaver Valley pany's contract binds, they will replace the condition of the property that may be disturbed by them in the building of the tunnel. Mr. Quinn's damages, assessed and paid him, were $175, but believing that he was still further damaged by the alling in of a portion of his ground he desating in or a portion of his ground he desires further compensation. The case was being argued yesterday by John Barton, e3q., for the plaintiff, and by Mr. Hampton for the railroad company.

THE CITY AND STEUBENVILLE BAILROAD -Councils some time since pessed an or-dinance giving the Pittsburgh and Sten-benville Railroad the right of way over certain streets, and requiring that before it went into effect the company should file a bond for the performance of the condi-tions which the ordinance imposed. We are informed to day that the company not only refuses to file this bond but claims that the work is being done by the Penn-sylvania railroad under its charter, and that they have no voice whatever in its that they have no voice whatever in its direction. This is a most singular statement, and its truth or falsity should be ascertained at once. When the ordinance referred to was before Councils it was stated over and over again because it was stated over and over again by gentlemen representing the Pennsylvania Road, that the Company had nothing to do with the work in question, and were it not for dis-avowal, it is certain that the terms imposed would have been much stricter than they are. If the Pennsylvania road agrees to comform to the conditions laid pany may have entered. We trust, however, says the Chronicle, that this is not so. It is essential to the interest of both the city and the Company that the spirit of distrust and suspicion which has so long characterized their relations, should cease, and we are loth to believe that the read comtemplates taking a course which must have a directly opposite tendency. If, however, the statement to which we have alluded should prove true, the duty of Councils will be plain. The authority of the city most be significant.

St. Louis, October 18.—Gov. Gamble has issued a long proclamation, charging that many evil disposed persons are endeavoring to produce disaffection towards the State Government, with the avowed purpose of overthrowing it by violence should other means fai. Among this class of persons are somelholding commissions from the State Government, and to effect this scheme, the circulation of the most extraordinary falsehoods and insinu ations regarding the purposes of the Stat Government, are resorted to. He puts the people of the State upon their guard against the plots of these conspirators and announces his determination to us all the force at his command, to sustain the laws and preserve the peace of the State, and punish those who disturb it. He also admonishes them that as the high est political right of citizens to vote at by the military with the rights of the qual ified voters, will be regarded as an offence of the greatest magnitude.
