

Where there is no Law there is no Freedom. The Union was the Constitution as it is.

THE ELECTION.

There is no doubt at all in relation to the success of Gov. CURTIS; he is certainly elected, but as regards his majority we cannot form any estimate, because of the meagreness of our returns.

FOR CURTIS.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times, an Abolitionist, telegraphed that paper on Monday last as follows: CURTIS MEN.

THE FUTURE OF THE WAR.

That President Lincoln's original intention was to prosecute hostilities against the rebels simply for the restoration of the Union, we are not disposed to dispute, but that the controlling, radical element of his party went with the contest simply to abolish slavery, we firmly believe.

Secretary Chase, the prospective Presidential candidate of the extreme Radicals, made a speech at the great meeting in Cincinnati, in which, under the mild and pleasant phraseology of "free labor," the extreme doctrine which we have alluded to is continued.

THE COMMERCIAL PRINTING COMPANY.

This mysterious, unknown and irresponsible combination of broken-down political hacks and traders in politics, which announced in one of its issues that "no man should be elected President who is not a free man," was captured yesterday afternoon published the following:

Five Years a Wife and Nineteen Years a Widow - A Wanderer Returned.

Romantic stories occasionally find their way into newspapers, in the form of local items. They are not always to be relied upon. The state of the local market sometimes leads the writer to invent, and when a dearth of items prevails, that fact should receive a fair degree of allowance.

The French Soldier in New Orleans.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia paper writes: "I have from high authority, that the position of the French soldiers in New Orleans is the Emperor, praying that they may be sent for their protection to the army of the Emperor, has been promptly and favorably responded to, and that some half dozen vessels are on the way to the French coast."

Greek Fire Again Thrown into the Streets of Charleston.

The Boston Herald has a letter from the fleet at Charleston, October 3d, which says: "Last evening Gen. Gilmer sent one of his Greek Fire shells into Charleston, and it exploded in the city. The fire was not taken on the buildings. The fire was not taken on the buildings. The fire was not taken on the buildings."

ITEMS OF NEWS AND NOTES.

H. S. Tappan, a Connecticut country man, was robbed of $4,000 in New York on Sunday night by tomahawks.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Senator Sumner's Address. The recent speech of Senator Sumner is extensively commented upon by the English press, and universally denounced.
