The Union as it Was, The Constitution as It Is, WRAT THE ELECTION DECIDED,

FORNEY made a speech in Philadelphi on the night of the election, in which he announced as follows what the Aboli tion re-election of CURTIN decided : "You have declared in favor of the entire polic of the Fed. ral Administration. You have de elared in favor of that much maligned and misrepresented draft. You have declared in far of the splendid financial policy of Mr. OBASE. You have declared in favor of the vicorous, h nes: and intropid management of the Wa Department, by Mr. STANTON. You have d clared that whother in the Administration of the legheny, that Judge WOODWARD was sorry Federal Hovernment or out of it, no man that he long to the Republican party shall dare to himself up against the Federal Government against the policy of that party. een brought under the notice of the mag istrates at Wolverhampton. A young womau, apparently in great distress, was found in the street by a policeman, to whom she related a shocking case of out rage, alleging, also, that poison had been administered to her. The man involved in these charges was apprehended ; but a Stafford police officer informed the magis trates that the woman was a gross imposter. He mentioned two or three similar cases, in which she had figured as infor mant, and in every instance her story was proved to be palpably false. The woman was remanded.
