THE ORIGINAL PICTURE.

From Niblo's Saloon New York, at MASONIC HALL, for a short season, commencing,
WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14th, 1863.

GODWIN & CO.'S GIGANTIC
Polyorama of the War,

The largest, most complete and only authentic History of the Great Rebellion ever depicted on canvas, forming a perfect transcript of every event of importance from THE FIRST DREADFUL SKIRMISH AT SUMTER, DOWN TO THE CAPTURE OF VICKSBURG.

THIS IS THE SAME COLOSSAL PICTURE of the War that was exhibited in Pittsburgh in January last, and gave such universal satisfaction to crowded and delighted audiences for three consecutive weeks; and the city also greeted its appearance in St. Louis, Chicago, Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Cincinnati and Louisville, the most capacious halls in those cities being insufficient to accommodate the immense throngs who flocked to witness it.

During the months of July and August, this Picture was placed in the hands of the talented artists under whose auspices it was originally produced and for nine weeks their united energies were bestowed in retouching the picture and executing new scenes of absorbing interest. Each scene has been entirely repainted, and stand forth in all the freshness and lustre of its pristine beauty. The tumultuous success and unparalleled reputation acquired by this matchless painting, brought into the field a host of miserable imitations, which have vainly endeavored to compete for the public favor. Their effort have proven utterly futile, and the press and public with one accord, have pronounced GODWIN & CO'S. POLYORAMA OF THE WAR UNRIVALED AND UNAPPROACHABLE. This exhibition is now under the exclusive control of MR. RUFUS SOMERBY, who will positively appear at each exhibition and deliver an elaborate historical lecture the rendition of which, in the principal cities of the United States, has extorted the unqualified approbation of the entire public. Mr. Geo D. Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, in commenting upon this Lecture, awarded to Somerby the proud title of "the MOST GIFTED ELOCUTIONIST OF THE DAY. Still further, to increase the attractiveness of this bill, and ENRY, the eminent Contralto Vocalist, will introduce at each exhibition a variety of popular and appropriate songs, ballads, &c., many of them written expressly to illustrate the various dioramic exciting scenes. The charms of melody are thus wedded to the painter's art, and the lovers of Artistic Excellence, Classic Oratory and Refined Musical Melody presents, with an entertainment which stands confessedly without a rival in the world!

Tickets, 25 cts; Children under ten 15 cts. Doors open at 7; commence at 8 o'clock. Second Matinee WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAY AFTERNOONS at 2 o'clock, when children will be admitted for 10 cts. each.

RUFUS SOMERBY, Manager.

DAILY POST.
CITY NEWS.
SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 17, 1863.

Attention First Ward Democrats

The Democratic citizens of the First Ward will meet this evening, at 7 o'clock, at the Club Room, corner of Fifth and Smithfield streets, for the purpose of investigating the outrageous proceedings of their election officers in depriving them of their rights as citizens, on Tuesday last. A general attendance is requested, as a thorough investigation of the frauds in question will be instituted.

Meeting of Return Judges.

The Return Judges for Allegheny county met in the District Court room at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, and organized by appointing Wm. Owens, jr., Chairman, and Thos. Steele and James L. Sutherland Secretaries. After the officers had been duly qualified, a motion was made, and caried, that the townships be called first in order. The Board then proceeded to count the returns, which we give below. The late hour at which the opening and reading the returns from the various wards, boroughs and townships was accomplished, rendered it impossible to procure the footings up of the votes cast for the different officers. For Governor, however, we give the result as follows:

Andrew G. Curtin	17,714
George W. Woodward	10,063
Curtin's Majority	7,661.

The entire Republican ticket is elected by about the same majority, with the exception of Jno H. Stewart for Sheriff—Mr. Blackmore running considerably ahead of the ticket for this office.

ALLEGHENY COUNTY—Official.

ITEMS.—Brig. Gen. Rowley has left to rejoin his command. Col. Sam. McKelvy ditto.——There is a slight rise in our rivers—more expected.—— Ettie Henderson will appear at the Theatre on Monday night.——The Grand Jury is still in session.——Politicians who lost bets are "forking over" the greenbacks.——Coal digging machines have been introduced in England—send some along here.——The Republicans are going to celebrate their late victory as soon as they are sure they are out of the woods, and we "guess" they are.——There was a heavy fall of rain last night.——A coal digger, whose name we could not learn, was horribly injured in a pit, at Buena Vista the other day, by the falling of slate.——It is said that Gen. Sigel is about to make Pittsburgh his residence.——Dr. Guthrie, pastor of the U. P. church in Mt. Pleasant, Pa., is about to resign his charge.——The Ghost is still the attraction at the Theatre.——Capt. Wright sent upwards of two hundred paroled prisoners off to their regiments on Thursday night.——Dan Rice's Circus will be here in a few days

SHOT.—A rumor has reached this city that Geo. W. Thompson was shot while attempting to escape from the guard near Alexandria. The report as it reached us, is as follows: Thompson was taken back to the Army of the Potomac. He determined to make his escape, and in the attempt the guard shot at him, the ball taking effect in his throat, causing his death in a few hours. We have received the news from such a source as leaves it correctness beyond a doubt.

WEEKLY PAPERS.—J. W. Pittock, opposite the Postoffice, furnishes us with all the New York Weekly Papers, including Harper's Weekly, Frank Leslie's Illustrated Paper, New York Illustrated News and Beecher's Independent, besides these you will find an abundant supply of the various descriptions of light literature. Don't forget the place. Call early and supply yourselves.

MAKING FIGURES.—Being engaged all day yesterday at the Court House making figures, and arranging our election tables, we are unable to give our usual variety of local news to-day.

LECTURE AT SHARPSBURG.—Rev. James Tracy will deliver a lecture in St. Joseph's church, Sharpsburg, this evening, 17th inst., to commence at 7½ o'clock. Tickets 25 cents. As the object of the lecture is charitable, and the lecturer fully capable of delivering an interesting and instructive discourse, we doubt not, there will be a large attendance.

THE Polyorama at Masonic Hall continues to attract the public in vast throngs who are delighted with its hundred beauties. This afternoon a Matinee will be given at 3 o'clock, when children will be admitted for 10 cents. Go and take the little folks.

HOW TO FILL YOUR ALBUMS.—Card Photographs of all subjects, at only one dollar per dozen. Never so low. Almost given away at Pittock's, opposite Postoffice.

PHOTOGRAPHIC ALBUMS—Such Beauties.—What could be better for a parlor ornament than an album. Call and select at Pittock's, opposite Postoffice.

FOR ELECTION RETURNS, get the Eastern papers at the agency, Pittock's, opposite Postoffice.
