THE POLYGRAM.—This afternoon at Masonic Hall the proprietors of the Polygram give a grand matinee for the accommodation of the 100,000 children, and we doubt not the occasion will be improved by hundreds of thousands of children, who will be able to see in consequence the immense crowd who gather at an early hour to witness this interesting entertainment. A great improvement for the little folks is the fact that they will be admitted for the small sum of 10 cents each.

Go this afternoon and take the little ones.

FROM WASHINGTON.

St. Louis, October 20.—The Memphis

Bulletin of the 19th gives additional particulars of military operations on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad. Our force at Collierville was less than five hundred men, and the rebels were driven back by a member of Gen. Sherman's staff, and not Sherman himself as previously reported. Opposed to us were eleven rebel regiments, under Chalmers and Richardson, numbering, it is said, eight thousand men, with nine pieces of artillery. Our loss was fourteen killed, ninety wounded and missing. Rebel loss about one hundred men.

During the pursuit of Chalmers by Col.

Hatch, the latter came up with the former at Collierville, and the latter was driven back. Where after two hours fight the rebels were dislodged from a very strong position, their guns being captured by the Union forces. The rebels were
