The Building will be pushed to complet on with all possible despatch.

From the location of the building above referred to, many of our readers will reognize it as the lot owned for many years by the venerable Dr. Francis Herron, and to which he resided for a period of about forty six years. In this connection it may not be amiss to give the reader an pitome of Dr. Herron's life and services is a minister of the Gospel in this city. On the 8th day of April, 1811, Dr. Herron was called to preach in the First Presby. to this c salary of $600, and on the 18th of June following be entered upon his pastoral labors. In a memoir of his life, it is statistical that the salary of the sal ted that at this time the business and com-mercial interests of Pittsburgh had advanced to an encouraging state of pros-perity. A turnpike road was in progress —a line of stage coaches connected the city with the East—a branch bank of Pennsylvania had been established—a rolling mill was in course of exercise. rolling mill was in course of erection-As connected with the Mental and Physical Changes, Mysterial and Direases of Human Life Changes of Life Changes of Human Life Ch and SATURDAY EVERY EVEN No AT and schooners, galleys and even snips were being built upon the wharves.

At the time Dr. Herron assumed the ders. In the year 1802 some improvements had been made on the "old log church, the expense of which had been partially defrayed, and in 1818 the lot and church were sold at public sale, and paneth by Dr. Herron for the sum of $2,819. A short time after he sold a portion of the lot for $3,000, and in 1814. three years from the commencement of his ministry, through his judicious manage the church was out of debt, and hand, the church was out of dept, and had a surplus of $180 in the treasury.

In 1817 the church edifice was enlarged and improved; and to complete its equipment, Gen. O'Hara presented the congre gation a large glass chandalier, which was gation a large glass chandler, which was suspended from the ceiling, and continued to illuminate and beautify the sanctuary for nearly forty years. In the year 1850, having completed his 76th year, Dr. Hermann and his ministerial office upon on resigned his ministerial office, upon e conviction that, like Eijah, he must son depart. In 1855, the wife who had ered the aspirations of his youth, and fiered the aspirations of his youn, and freegthened the energies of his man-lood, died. THE REJECTED WITH THE ASSOCIATION OF THE ARMY OF THE PRINCIPLE OF THE PRIN Among the female novelists of this coun try, the author of this volume has won a distinguished place, both by the fertility of her invention, and the almost mascu line vigor of her style. Her forte is in the power of vivid description, and she prefers to portray a group in hold and brilliant relief, to illustrate the shades and lights of a complex individuality In her riting there is a cordial sense of reality, genuine sympathy with actual human conditions. The volume before us is perfectly characteristic of her peculiar style It illustrates her highest qualities, together with the offsets that are by no means inconsistent with the possession of rare ability as a writer. It is rumored in town to night that Meade's army was executing a similar manœuvre to that of two weeks ago. It eems to be credited. A special to the World, dated Washing. ton, the 27th, asserted on the very high-est authority, that the removal of Gen. Meade has been decided upon, and will
