The officer, who is intelligent and apparently honest, tells a tale which is cheering and inspiring to all good Union men and which corroborates previous information. He says a full brigade of Tennesseeans, with their General at their head attempted to come through to our lines in a body one day last week, and that a division of staunch rebels was called out to prevent them. A fight of the most sanguinary character ensued in which artillery, muskerry and bayonets were used for three or four hours, resulting in the overpowering of the discontented Tennesseeans, after so hoth sides. The sound of the cannon was distinctly heard in our lines at the time, and the public to the Federal cause.

Semmes will not, from motives policy, seek an engagement with the Vanderbilt. But if his vessel should be block aded in Simon's Bay by her, will endeavor to allude her as she did the San Jacinto New York Cattle Market. SECOND DAY. to allude her as she did the San Jacinto at Martinique. Capt. Semmes is of the opinion that the Vanderbilt is not very much faster than the Alabama, and that if he should come to close quarters, he could not get away from her.

Henry W. Beecher addressed an im mense audience in Exeter Hall, London, on the 20th inst, upon the interests of the North. A few expressions of dissent were drowned in the general plandits of the vast assemblage.

The Daily News eaps one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in London must bave convinced Mr. Beecher of the truth of Earl Russel's assention that the San Jacinto Tuesdo. The Sheep was the distance of the should come to close quarters, he could not large enough to break down the morning is not large enough to break down the southers, but the supply of fresh cattle this weak as it was last Tuesday—leaving at least and stale stock will be absorbed this week, leaving ac ear field for next Monday, and the sales of those that came in this morning are reported at least one of the search in this week at 32 c v. n., which no such low sales as the tins week he eavent age of the market this week at 32 c v. n., which no such low sales as the reduce the general ing for very low priced steers, which they failed time. time.

THE SHEEP MARKET.

THE SHEEP MARKET.

Reccipts this week, 17,952.

The market opened on Monday morning in Six h streer with a very liberal supply of sheep and lamb, and a larger prorition of sheep than usual, and those of better quality than we have seen for a long t me, and we have not seen as sharp a market this season. The salesman were remarkably met-pendent. They name their price, and "take am or leave" amy was the word. Some large Canada sheep sold at prices estimated by sellers at 000 feet of $00 live wight, and by buyers at $4.00 feet of $00 live wight, and by buyers at $4.00 feet of $00 live wight, and by buyers at $4.00 feet of $00 live wight, and by buyers at the next monthly contract. The weather too was very favorable, being arry and clear, and the coldect of the season, ice having formed for the first time on Sunday night, market was hard on butchers on takinday, but owing to the change in temperature, they seemed disposed to trust their channess freely on Monday morning. At least 10 look and the market of stock. There were a large supply at Albany, but owing to the change in temperature, they seemed of stock. There were a large supply at Albany, but owing to the change in temperature, they seemed for stock. There were a large supply at Albany, owners were afraid to send it forward freely.

Butch recomplain that nearly all the business in Sixtu street is in the hands of two vicers; that no drovers or farmers are ever seen in market selling their own sheep. The reason is they cannot afford it. The brokers sell on credit, and set more for owners than they would get by saving the commission, which, by the by, is the smallest percentage of any produce business in New York. Fortunately for butchers, there is he under the present market, it has a legitimate cause. Fales in the wholesale meat market, yesterday and to-day have been at good paying prices. THE SHEEP MARKET.
