RADICALISM BUN MAD.

A few days prior to the assembling the Chicago Convention, which nominated Mr. LINCOLN, there was held, in the same A letter from a "prominent officer in Longstreet's corps" states that there will be no attack on Chattanooga, and adds that although the Union position is not city, a National gathering of German radicals; the purpose of these was to dictate the policy of the Republican party, and impregnable, it is very strongly fortified, and would cost half of Bragg's army to they succeeded. Encouraged by their success in 1860, these revolutionary Gerstorm them.' mans have already commenced their oper ation, in view of controlling the nominations and election next year. They assembled in Cleveland last week, their session lasting several days, and among other rea olutions they passed the following :

5. Treatment of the re-con ur red rebel States as Territories for the purpose of re-construction 6. Cost on of the confisionted lands in the spirit of the Homestead Bill, as well as d' nation of por-tions of land to the de'enders of the country, of whatever color, and to the liberated slarve. It will be seen from this that the German Radicals have adopted the extreme idea of the rabidest Abolitionist. The Southern States are to be, when conquered, reduced to territorial condition, and the lands given to such German Radicals

This is the then that in a few short hours he would be be trifled with in the compliant spirit of cotemporary times. Let those deny the ustice of that historical judgment which efuses to attribute to the official authorities of this Government such success as we have had in this war say that they have contributed to it. Then the question will become practical, and the discussion be stripped of the vague style of general compliments, and the mere assertions of Hattery. Where are the great evidences "statesmanship" in Richmond; where those of the toresight and sagacity of our lenders? Are they to be found in our foreign relations, which have been make
