LIVER COMPLAINT, or any chronic disease of a wasting or debilitating type, or decaying of the natural powers. Dr. SCHENCK would advise all nersons who have chronic allments and with to consunt him to cut this advertisement out, so as to enable them to remember the time of by visit. For consultation and advice he makes no charce. to remember the time of the visit. For consultation and advices he makes no charke.

Many persons, however, devive a thorough examination of the lungs, as as to know their exact condution. For such an examination has charpe withree devices. The examination has paide with an instrument of his sown invention, called "SCHENCK's AESPIROMETER," the examination is entirely free from pain, and will point out the true condition of the lungs, whether in a healthy or may had state.

Below will be found a recent certificate of cure in the city of him I ork, attested by several witnesses. Dr. Geo. If Kryser, if Pittsburgh with present when the statement of Mrs. Batholoment was green, and can vouch for its grauinnesses. Hunareds of cures of a like churacter are scattered all over the Unived States, so as to convince the m stincredulous of the raile of Dr. Schenck's medicines.

Several of my friends, through my recommendation, have been using Lr. Schetck's menter as for consumption and other diseases of that kind, All of them have been greatly benefit ed. I make this public statement in order that the thousands who suffer from diseases similar to mine may be induced to try Dr. Schenek's invaluable medicines. Do not think as I did, that if your favorite doctor cannot be p you no one can. I would advise every consumptive person to go and see Dr. doctor cannot he p you no one can. I would ad vise every consumptive person to go and see Drichenok, and follow his prescriptions. Take his advice, at least, if you do not take his medicines. It is encouraging to hear the people conversing in his rooms and describing the benefit they receive from his treatment. Their looks show that they have no deception in them. They are all anxious for help, and are coing all helped. I wish all who are afflicted as I was so call and see me, for I feel that I can satisfy every one of them that this statement is not exaggerated. I relate all the particulars, because I know that many are like what I was—skeptical. I have requested a number of my friends to append their names to my statement, in order that no person can entertain any reasonable doubts on the subject.

AND tertain any reasonable doubts on the subject.
MRS, MARY BARTHOLOMEW.

MRS. MARY BARTHULDER M.
We, the undersigned, friends and acquaint ances of Mrs. Bertholdmew, who gives the above certificate, have known her for many years, and do critify that the fratements made by her are entitled to full credence, and that the account is not at all exaggerated. Scarcely any person who knew her three months ago would recognize her now-such is the alteration of her appearance.

They said a great amber of severe things against the comnon enemy; but he never lifted his eyes mon enemy; but he never lifted his eyes from the exciting details of the Champion Fight of Light Weights, which appeared to afford him intense, though tranquil satisfaction. When the soldiers got out at Farnboro, I and his eyes twinkle with special mental to be in the certain that he was enjoying his victory until the train began to move egain. No sooner, however, had we left the platform than the Etonian burst into such a series than the Etouian burst into such a series than the Etcolan burst into such a series of fits of laughter that they actually rumpled his neckcloth. He became, in short, to my horror, a boy in one of its most ordinary and repulsive forms. "I think I did 'em, eh, old stick in the mid?' cheeved he when he had got a mid?' cheeved he when he had got a mid?' nud? 'observed he, when he had got a little breath. httle breath.

"You deprived four gentlemen of an hour's pleasure," replied I, haughtily.

"Yes, but I deprived myself as well," returned the diminutive, producing from his pocket a briar root pipe. "I can't go without my tobacco myanif, without great without my tobacco myself, without great inconvenience."

'What!' cried I. "you are not going to smoke yourself, you young monkey."

'Ain'! I, though!" interrupted the E conian hodding in an offensive familiar manner. "If those fellows had been creat, and asked my permission to any ke as we in as yours, I would have given the in each a better cigar than the Line are account oned to. I flatter myself; but since they chose better eight than the Line are accounts with a life in myself; but since they chose to carry matters with a high hand, you see-puff-puff-and got hold of the wrong man for that sort of thing-puff, puff-why, they have to take the consequences." "But I will not permit you to smoke, young sir, observed I, indiguantly; or if you do (for I shrank from a personal contest with that audacious child.) you shall never a complete. half pay a couple of sovereigns out of your pocket money at the next station.

"Excuse me," returned the Evenian blandly; "the by-law asya, if or just does now when your friends it quired whether you would allow them to smoke Jack (smoke jack—by the by, that's furny)—when your friends—puff, puff—demanded that, you replied—for I heard you that you had no objection."

And that awful specimen of the ganus And that awful specimen of the genus poy smoked underterred, like a lime k in, until we both get out at Weymou h; where, if I had my way, he should have been taken off to Portland prison, and kept there until such time as he should be
