Indications, too plain to be mistaken, an counce the fact, both in the East and West of the States in rebellion. In North Carcina and Arkansas the fatal charm at length is broken. At Ral igh and Little Rock the lips of honest and brave men length is provided in the first of the States in rebellion. In North Carcina and Arkansas the fatal charm at length is broken. At Ral igh and Little Rock the lips of honest and brave men liberal patronage bestowed upon them. are unsealed, and an independent press is unlimbering its artillery. The weary are unsealed, and an independent press is unlimbering its artillery. The weary masses of the people are yearning to see the dear old flag floating again upon the capitols, and they sigh for the return of the peace, prosperity and happiness which they enjoyed under a government whose power was felt only in its blessings.

And now, friends, fellow citizens of Gettysburg and Pennsylvania, and you from remoter States, let me again invoke your benediction, as we part, on these honored graves. You feel, though the occasion is mournful, that it is good to be here You feel that it was greatly an solicious for the cause of the country, that he men of the East and the men of the west, the men of nine-ein sister States should be here you now feel it a new bond of union, that they shall lie side by side till a clarion londer than that which marshaled them to combat, shall awake

Mr. Everett proceeds then to consider the great rebellion in England in the 17th century, the Thirty Years' and Seven Years, Wars in Germany, the various Italian wars, the French civil wars, all of which have not prevented the respective countries from becoming greater and more united than ever.

The oration concludes as follows:

The people of loyal America will never take to their confidence or admit again to a snare in their Government the hard
