

possible to entirely suppress illicit trade from the returns received at the Navy Department it appears that more than one thousand vessels have been captured since the blockade was enforced...

The Naval force of the United States, consists, at this time, of 688 vessels, computed in the course of completion, and of these, 125 are iron clad armored steamers...

The change that has taken place in naval vessels and naval warfare, since the introduction of steam as a motive power for ships of war, demands every corresponding change in some of our existing yards, or the construction of new ones...

The increase of the number of persons in the public service of the Government in the year 1861, to about 24,000 at the present time has been accomplished without special legislation...

The increase of the number of persons in the public service of the Government in the year 1861, to about 24,000 at the present time has been accomplished without special legislation...

The international conference of postal delegates from the principal countries of Europe and America, which was called at the suggestion of the Postmaster General, met at Paris on the 11th of May last...

I refer to the report of the Secretary of the Interior, which is herewith laid before you, for the usual and varied information in relation to public lands...

The grant to railroad companies of alternate sections of land upon the completed lines of their roads, when completed, will largely multiply the facilities of reaching our distant possessions...

upon the public lands, notwithstanding the great struggle in which the Government has been engaged, and which has required so large a withdrawal of our citizens from their accustomed pursuits...

I invite your attention to the report of the Secretary of War as to the progress of raising, by appropriation of legislation, a revenue from the mineral lands of the United States...

I suggested in my last annual message the propriety of remedying our Indian system. Subsequent events satisfied me of its necessity...

The situation of Congress, during the last session, was engaged to some extent with a proposition for enlarging the water communication between the Mississippi and the Northeastern seaboard...

I transmit the second annual report of the Commissioner of the Department of Agriculture, asking your attention to the developments in that vital interest of the Nation...

The Emancipation Proclamation, which was issued in September, was raising its assigned period to the beginning of the new year, to make it more effective...

Of those who were slaves at the beginning of the rebellion, fully one hundred thousand are now in the United States military service, about one half of whom actually bear arms in the ranks...

On examination of this proclamation, it will appear that it is not only a declaration of the President's power, but also a declaration of the will of the people...

State shall, on subscribing to the constitutional obligations of the Government against treason and domestic violence.

The constitutional obligations of the United States to guarantee to every State a republican form of Government, and to protect the State in the case of insurrection, rebellion, or invasion...

But it is important to require a test of allegiance to the Constitution of the United States and to the Union...

I may add, at this point, that while I do not attempt to retract or modify the Emancipation Proclamation, nor shall I retract or modify the Proclamation, or by any act of Congress...

The suggestion in the proclamation to maintain the political framework of the States, on what is called reconstruction, is not a suggestion to be made without harm...

The objection to a premature presentation of a plan by the National Executive is a matter of course, and one which could be more safely left to future developments...

Practical communication between them and Tennessee and Arkansas, has been substantially cleared of insurgents' control and influence...

Whereas, on and by the Constitution of the United States, it is provided that the President shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States, except in cases of impeachment...

known to all persons who have directly or by implication, participated in the existing rebellion, except as hereinafter excepted...

The persons excepted from the benefits of the foregoing provisions of this article shall be those who have been civil or diplomatic officers or agents of the so-called Confederate States...

And I do further proclaim, declare and make known, that whenever in the future any person shall be in charge of such, or shall have engaged in any way in the rebellion...

And I do further proclaim, declare and make known, that whenever in the future any person shall be in charge of such, or shall have engaged in any way in the rebellion...

And I do further proclaim, declare and make known, that whenever in the future any person shall be in charge of such, or shall have engaged in any way in the rebellion...

And I do further proclaim, declare and make known, that whenever in the future any person shall be in charge of such, or shall have engaged in any way in the rebellion...

And I do further proclaim, declare and make known, that whenever in the future any person shall be in charge of such, or shall have engaged in any way in the rebellion...

And I do further proclaim, declare and make known, that whenever in the future any person shall be in charge of such, or shall have engaged in any way in the rebellion...

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE. We publish this document entire, in this day's paper; it arrived so late that we had no opportunity to carefully consider its contents...

JOHN C. BRECKENRIDGE is not dead. Southern Italy grew 80,000 bales of cotton this year.

The rebel army from Aquia Creek to Falmouth is in perfect order. Maj. Gen. Grant has captured since the war four hundred and seventy-two cannon and ninety thousand prisoners.

Frederickburg. Trouble with the Indians on the banks of the Yellowstone River is expected. They are determined that the whites shall not explore or occupy it.

On the arrival at the home in Providence, of Senator STRAIGHT and his bride, on Wednesday, they were welcomed with a salvo of artillery.

General THOMAS FRANKLIN MORGAN has been captured by the rebels while on a visit to the army at Mine Run during the late engagement. He was in citizen's clothes at the time.

The miners at Broad Top, Pa., who have been on a strike for the last two months, have resumed work on all the collieries but two or three on the terms offered by the operators.

Navigation on the Mississippi and Illinois rivers, north of Quincy and Meredosia, has been closed. The Illinois river is completely frozen over at the latter place.

Northern financial declaimers. Were the entire slave population of the South freed for emancipation, would it be paid to see them all free to-morrow...

On Thursday we penned the following in relation to the late letter of SAMUEL B. BATES to Gen. MORGAN:

The bloody teachings of Abolitionism produced our present National trouble, and their continuance is likely to prevent these troubles from coming to a speedy termination.

The Pittsburgh Gazette copies the article in question, and appears to detect wonderful inconsistency in its sentiments; our neighbor will pardon us when we declare our inability to perceive its sharpness.

On the 4th, SHERMAN arrived there on the 3d. FORTY'S cavalry followed. The emigrants who have arrived at New York since January last number 166,519.

General THOMAS FRANKLIN MORGAN has been captured by the rebels while on a visit to the army at Mine Run during the late engagement. He was in citizen's clothes at the time.

The miners at Broad Top, Pa., who have been on a strike for the last two months, have resumed work on all the collieries but two or three on the terms offered by the operators.

Navigation on the Mississippi and Illinois rivers, north of Quincy and Meredosia, has been closed. The Illinois river is completely frozen over at the latter place.

States; for they do not wish the North to have a Constitution. They fight now only to free slaves, who never asked the boon of freedom.

The Baltimore Exiles. It appears that some gentlemen of Baltimore have been sent South because they refused to take the oath of allegiance.

The Constitution, and all laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land.

That is the extent of obedience in the ruler, and of the duty of obedience in the individual. It forms the limit of any oath which Congress or any other body may lawfully impose.

It is the duty of every citizen to see to it that the Southern States adopt some system of gradual emancipation, such as Pennsylvania did, and in this we should like to see them consult their own and the slaves' interest.

Some Sentiments. There is a healthy tone in the rejoined article from the Louisville (Ky.) Journal...

The Abolition War Policy. In 1860, (says the New York World), Southern States alleged that their slavery, having a numerical majority, had determined to govern them upon subject they had not agreed to be governed upon...

The Abolition War Policy. In 1860, (says the New York World), Southern States alleged that their slavery, having a numerical majority, had determined to govern them upon subject they had not agreed to be governed upon...

MAGNOLIA BALM. This is the most delightful and extraordinary remedy for all the various diseases of the skin...

TAN, FRECKLES, PIMPLES. ROUGHNESS FROM THE SKIN. Leaving the complexion fresh, transparent and soft...

CARRIAGE MANUFACTURERS. SILVER & BRASS PLATES. Saddlery & Carriage Hardware.

100 BILLS, 50 CENTS. Just received and for sale by J. H. BROS.