It has subjected us to insult from a distardly enemy, to charges of purloining the things sent, for our own use. We hope that no set, for our own use. We hope that no cived. The Secretary of War has given that no abatament of rations should retrieve our misfortunes by imitating orders that no abatement of rations should retrieve our misfortunes by imitating the methods adopted by the enemy to retrieve their reception does not relieve in the methods adopted by the enemy to retrieve theirs. Every reflecting man perceives the vastness of the stake at least our commissariat. The privileges we grant to the enemy's prisoners is withheld from our own, now confined in the United States. In one instance that has come to our knowledge boxes sent to prisoners have been appropropriated by the guard—and this done because sent by sympathizers in the enemy's lines.

The abuse and falsehood of our enemy relieves us from all duty to 1: them feed their prisoners, and Commissioner Meredith's conduct in pretending that he was not sure that the provisions sent reached not sure that the provisions sent reached the prisoners, should cause our authorities to notify the enemy that we will noilonger hold communication with them through the medium of such a knave and fool as this Meradith has shown himself to be. heart of the South. What is to be done must be done without one moment's delay, and much must be given up in order that something may be saved. Grant's goal is Atlanta. He will be there before this Meradith has shown himself to be.

> True Patriotism and Loyalty. Hon. D. W. Voorhees, one of the Hon. D. W. Voorhees, one of the most eloquent champions of constitutional liberty in the country, and who has been advocating the election of the Democratic ticket, delivered a ground a ground the Democratic description.

upon mud and not upon men? Shall we rest upon mud and not upon men? Shall we trust to cars and not to energy? Heaven forbid! The railroad from Nastwille to Chattanooga is, doubtless, now open, and trains running all the way through. On this railroad any quantity of cars and engines necessary to stock the road from Chattanooga to Atlanta may be brought through in less than a week's time. Two weeks more will be all that Yankee activity and ingenuity will demand to complete the rebuilding of burned bridges. But we doubt if Grant will await the arrival of cars and the completion of bridges. He has plenty of transportation, and the whole North behind him to supply horses and wagons as tast as they break down.
