DAILY POST

From the N. Y. Herald. Our London Correspondence.

London, Nov. 28, 1863. Every incident and rumor goes to prove what I have told you from the first, that that it would now say it is impracticable. There never was the least chance of it;

but Louis Napoleon has created a sensation-has played the cuttle fish by darkening the water with ink, and thus thrown a an adroit game to play, and if the Emperor does not astonish some sleepy heads when it is fully developed then he is not the man who planned the coup d etat of December, 1851. The wise ones already begin to whisper it, and the plan is this:

Seeing the attitude of England, Louis
Napoleon is going to form a strong alliance with Russia, each to work out their own plans, malgre all opposition Austria, Prussia or Great Britain, necessary, Italy is to be taken into the may look at first blush, you will see in it the close scrutiny of an old hall guard by the very best thing that France can do. And see the common grounds of interest; keep his place in that institution for neareach hates England, each Power is despote and absolute, and they are not rivals or likely to come into collision or on to delicate or disputed ground respecting boundaries or territony. Each has designs on Turkey and the East, and each has a housile and unfriendly side towards Anstrial that General Morgan had frequently tried housile and unfriendly side towards Anstrial.

plan is on the tapis and will soon be carr.ed out. I can see no objection whatever, ander and Napoleon will meet, on a sort made a tunnel three feet square under the of diplomatic raft, as whilom their great predecessors and namesakes did in days vote on the waters of Vistala. And if Berlin had better put his house in order.

Though they do not know how to blow glass, I have seen samples which rival in brilliancy any made in Eagland. The French Minister had a large ball, so clear and of such perfect color, that he believe ed it to be a gigantic sapphire, and bought it for a good round sum. Their paper imitations of leather are perfect; their imitations of leather are perfect; their paper waterproof coats are bought by the captains of ships for their exposed boats or ever; their own clocks are good, and they have imitated our watches; they walk about with 'pedometers' attached to their belts, and they are not backward in copper-plate engraving and perspective. Their ohina is far superior to the Chinese. The country abounds with coal, though they only use that found close to the surface; but even that, a sort of bituminous shale, is good. In gold and silver I believes they could rival Mexical and and Australia; iron, copper and tin are found in profusion. A friend of mine at Yokohama gave a Japanese a piece of English cotton shirting; in a few days the man brought back two piecer, and my friend had much difficulty in saying which was his, so closely had it been imitated.

Of course France must withdraw from Mexico; and this friendly arrangement being completed, the whole matter can be managed gracefully. And how easy after a few years it will be to say to John Bull:—"You have been in the Western World long enough; please pull up stakes, withdraw your forces and ships, and depart forever."

Nothing of this new alliance has been in the journals, so far as I have seen; but some very well informed gentlemen—natives of the continuous and that we concealed, but we forbear mentioning the some very well informed gentlemen—natives of the continent—are sure this grand
