PITTSBURGH: TUESDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1863. Democratic City Ticket.

JOSEPH R. HUNTER. FOR CONTROLLER, WILLIAM M. EDGAR.

FOR TREASURER, PRANCIS FELIX. DEMOCRATIC CITY CONVENTION. For the proceedings of the Democratic City Convention, called to nominate a ticket to be supported at the approaching municipal 'election, we refer the reader to our local department. The ticket nominated is a good one, and whether elected or not, reflects credit upon the discrimiin nomination.

AN ABOLITION BLUNDER. Every reader in America is, of course, become the very embodiment and repreprogressive Abolitionism. For about three years he has exercised more influparty, than that wielded by CLAY or JACK. cal standard as fast as he really could. The formance of military duty." same "honest" chief magistrate, while pretending to agree with the Border State men, in their policy, remarked that he could not, just then, afford to break with PHILLIPS. GREELEY and their followers. In fact, from the day ABRAHAM LINCOLN took his inauguration oath to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States, he has been paltering with the people in a double sense, not even "keeping the word of promise to the sar," but, upon every occasion, breaking it to the nation's

We now perceive that PHILLIPS has again bean called to the stump to point out the errors of Mr. Lincoln. Some of our contemporaries seem impressed with not capable of committing; as to details. they are only a question of time. The policy predomin ent in Washington is the election of the present dynasiy, and destruction of the slave States. The restoration of the Union; the ces ends, are light considerations, in the estimation of bloody, and brutal Abolitionism, which seeks to plant itself firmly upon our Republican system. The extreme men of the party, like PEILLIPS, need not fear their pupil; he is coming faster after them, than the "three hundred thousand" more are coming to him. He has proven himself an able scholar, in the lesson of radicalism, and PHILLIPS' ability to teach, will not, hereafter, sur-sanction to the monstrons usurpation. This bogus Commonwealth, West Virginia, is now represented in Congress, her senators in the United States Senate weilding as much power as those from Pennsylvania. Take this open and naked proceeding, in connection with the President's recommendation of allowing one tenth of the population of each seceded State to constitute its ruling power, and no one can stop short of the conclusion that "honest Ark Lincolk" is, in order to retain power—is at least willing to wink at "treasons stratagems and spoils." No Abolitionist, not even of the most copperhead and poisonous character, need feer the control conductor of the construction bureau?
