Genuine Philanthropy.

They have been holding in Cincinnati a Commission, and among other ingeninos methods of raising money, a committee was appointed to solicit autographs to

Ble. Remembering, we presume, that Mr. Vallandigham had been the chosen candidate of nearly two hundred thousand good price, one of the committee requestto contribute to the collection. This he did as follows: "WINDSOR, C. W., Dec. 16, 1863.

GROBGE MOLAUGHLIN, ésq , Cincinnati, Ohio-Sir-Yours of the 11th. requesting om me an autograph letter, for the bene fit of the Sanitary Commission, has been received, and I cheerfully comply.

The object of the Commission is one o mercy. It is a charity graly Christian to visit the sick, to heal the wounded, to death with heroic courage, upon the many battle fields of this most sorrowful of wars, gives but still more of value to the merci ful purpose. The Commission, if justly, mark that mighty revolution which is at this ful purpose. al purpose. The Commission, it justly, rly, with integrity and without partialshall perform its pious duties, will f worthy of all the noble praise by Barke apon the benevolent
