PITTSBURGH: FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1864.

Democratic City Ticket.

FOR MAYOR, JOSEPH R. HUNTER. FOR POST OFFICE, WILLIAM M. EDGAR. FOR TREASURER, FRANCIS FELIX.

DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The Democratic Central Committee are prepared to meet at the Merchants' Hotel, in the City of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 13th day of JANUARY NEXT, at 10 o'clock.

NO PAPER.

This being New Year's, there will be no labor done in this office; consequently no paper will be issued by us to-morrow. On Monday next we will again renew the assurance of our profound consideration.

ITEMS.

A happy New Year to all. BRIGAM YOUNG has just taken a new wife—his sixty first.

The report of the removal of Gen. INGALLS is totally discredited. Louisville has purchased $50,000 worth of coal for its poor.

About 15,000 emigrants have arrived in New York this year. The farmers in Hungary are said to be starting.

Affairs are very dull in Richmond. Flour has gone up to $200 a barrel, and is still rising. It is estimated that there are between two and three thousand Quakers in the army.

An Inraslate has recently been chosen Mayor of Southampton, England, and another is Mayor of Liverpool.

A foreign letter says few people seem to believe that the next summer will come and go without a European war.

The President and his party have returned from an excursion down the Potomac.

The Massachusetts tobacco crop for the year has proved a great success, both in quantity and quality.

Lord Lytton, in a dispatch to Earl Russell, says to have predicted the termination of the American war in three months.

A bill has been introduced in the North Carolina Senate to incorporate the North Carolina volunteer army.

A new cathedral is about to be erected in Havana, built wholly of iron, the estimated cost of which is $1,000,000.

A Philadelphia print calls the shells which were sent singing into Charleston last Friday, "Phillimore's Christmas Carols."

More troops are to be sent to St. Domingo from Spain. The Spanish prospects on that island are not very bright at present.

The Church of St. Apollonia, Béziers, France, was recently visited by lightning, which did little damage, but lighted all the candles on the altar.

Over $18,000 was collected in the Roman Catholic churches of New York City on Christmas day for the benefit of Catholic orphans.

E. H. EWING, a distinguished rebel lawyer at Nashville, expresses a desire to return to his allegiance under the President's proclamation.

At its late anniversary, the Missionary Society of the Cincinnati Conference elected General GRANT an honorary member.

E. A. HENDER, a brother of ex-Governor HENDER, of Pa., was taken suddenly ill in the street at Stanhope, N. J., on the 22d, and was soon a corpse.

The Fifty-third regiment Pennsylvania volunteers has been ordered to Harrisburg to recruit for the three years' service.

Gen. MOGAW, the guerrilla leader, is reported to have been at Columbus, S. C., a few days ago. It is safe not to believe anything about his location.

Small-pox is prevalent among the Union prisoners at Danville, says the Rebel papers. "Hewson" tells the poor fellows; they will get little of help or pity from the rebels.

A report is circulated at Havana that the Archduke MAXIMILIAN will accept the throne of Mexico only on the condition that the restoration of the American Union is made impossible.

The U. S. steamer Vanderbilt has returned to New York. She captured the British bark Saxton, as alleged, in British waters on the supposition that the Saxton was laden with cargo of the Union ship Concord.

The English Government has punished the officials that assisted in fitting out a rebel steamer for service. News about the enforcement of laws have been sent to the Government.

Gov. of Leeds, Maine, took a party of cats to market, last week, a ten-dollar bill. Return pulled a bill of paper from it his pipe, and the ten-dollar bill was in a whiff.

Army of the Potomac the news is the departure of veteran regiments for their furloughs of thirty days.

They took place on the stage La Crosse, Wis., and St. Louis. Some parties organized Bank, were sending States bonds to Washington.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONSTITUTION. The violations of the Constitution by the present administration are thus concisely summed up in an address from the Camden N. J. Democratic Association.

I. The freedom of speech has been violated by the arrest and imprisonment of the members of the press, charged with crime, and whose only offense was the crime of sentiments dissatisfied to the men in power.

II. The freedom of the press has been violated by the suppression of a number of newspapers.

III. The right to security from arrest when no crime is charged has been violated in the arrest and incarceration of a large number of persons, denounced by the press as traitors to the country.

IV. The right to security from unlawful searches and seizures has been violated in numerous instances, in which dwellings have been visited and papers, &c., seized without legal authority.

V. The right of jury has been refused in the cases of citizens arrested and imprisoned or banished by military orders or court martial.

VI. The freedom of every citizen has been taken from him by the illegal and unnecessary suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus.

VII. The right of property has been violated by the Emancipation proclamation and the Constitution act.

VIII. The inviolability of contracts has been destroyed by the act which makes depreciated treasury notes a legal tender for all debts.

IX. The freedom of religious worship has been violated on repeated occasions by the interference of military officers.

X. The right of states to the management of their militia has been taken from them by the Constitution act, which places the whole military power of the country at the disposal of the President.

XI. The formation of the State of West Virginia was a violation of the third act of the Constitution.

XII. The heretofore undisturbed right of the people to elect their legislators and rulers has been taken from them, and the will of majorities disregarded, as an abominable and unconstitutional proceeding.

XIII. The right of states to the management of their militia has been taken from them by the Constitution act, which places the whole military power of the country at the disposal of the President.

XIV. The heretofore undisturbed right of the people to elect their legislators and rulers has been taken from them, and the will of majorities disregarded, as an abominable and unconstitutional proceeding.

XV. The right of states to the management of their militia has been taken from them by the Constitution act, which places the whole military power of the country at the disposal of the President.

XVI. The heretofore undisturbed right of the people to elect their legislators and rulers has been taken from them, and the will of majorities disregarded, as an abominable and unconstitutional proceeding.
