PITTSBURGH:

TUESDAY, JANUARY 12, 1864. The Democratic State Central Committee are requested to meet at the MERCHARTS' HC-TEL, in the City of Philadelphia on WEDNES-DAY, the 13th day of JANUARY NEXT. at 4 o'clock p. m.

CHARLES J. BIDDLE, Chairman. EXTREME LOYALTY IN NEW YORK. Our readers, doubtless, remember the notorious investigating committee, headed by the equally notorious John Covode, during Mr. Buchanan's administration. One of the telling points made by this committee against the integrity of what Abolitionists now term "the Government," was the defalcation of Isaac Fow. LER then Postmaster at New York. The loss to the Government of a few thousand dollars by that careless spendthrift, was dwelt upon by every Abolition sheet in the country, as evidence of the utter pro fligacy of the National Administration. There was no escape for the President: he was held to a rigid accountability for the act of his subordinate, and condemned accordingly. No one attempted to screen

he fled to Mexico.

The cause of Fowler's defalcation was was too liberal of money for that; his crime was the result of carelessness. But what, even if his sin was the consequence of deliberate rascality, was it compared that establishment was arrested, and sent to Fort Lafayette for actually playing into the hands of the rebels; but the Admipistation did not see proper to push investigation. tration did not see proper to push investithat he is a prominent Republican politician, a member of the State Central Committee, and the facts will demonstrate, beyond the shadow of a doubt that the so constantly through the Custom House of New York to the rebels in arms against the Government have been given, not in spite of all the vigilance of the Custom House Republican officials, but by their organized assistance and to their pecuniary profit. It is to the desks of the Custom House that the vigilant officer has gone who has unearthed these occupations; it is to the private apartments of tracked the scoundrels who paid liberally to serve their country in a peaceful and honorable occupation, have been assistloud mouthed bigotry and the political of the interest in the currency of the gov war for the Union, were being so viruproving a war of extermination and Abolition, these Republican politicians were ported value. In this controversy Mr. already laying their plans for sending McGRATH is fortified and sustained by the arms and supplies to the rebels.
