The Immense Dividends of Her Shod dy Contractors from the Jersey City Standard.

Hearing that there was a small Indian camp not far from where we were em-barked, I concluded to leave the stage and go on to find it and get some dried buffalo meat, for our supplies were ex-hausted, as we had only laid in a store for a fire-day trip. The Indian camp, how-ever, proved to be further off than we thought, for I walked fifteen miles, with the snow up to my knees nearly all the A recent number of the Boston Tracel ler gives the figures of the dividends declared by some of the New England the snow up to my knees nearly all the Sad way, before the huts of me in sight.
