LOCAL INTELLIGENCE, Report of the County Controller—Financial Condition of the County.

Henry Lambert, each, County Controller, appeared in the Court of Common pleas, Wednesday morning, and in pursuance of the act of May 1st, 1861, filed is annual statement of the fiscal affairs of the county. From the report we learn that the finances of the county are in a very graitifying condition. The total or dinary expenses for 1862, were $89,000, while the total ordinary expenses of the county are in a dejourned meeting to meet at the Monon while the total ordinary expenses of the mast wear were but $80,792—a decrease and a sea an earnest or of immediate action, and as an earnest or the view authorized the Secretary to published as a correct representation, that there are so many unknown dead, that there are so many unknow which have run up to an enormous sum. a large increase in its expenditures.
