There is no official confirmation of the reported fight on the south side of the Rapidan with a large body of deserters Government hence to Louisville last week. It is nevertheless known Arrived,-Col Leisure, of the 100th that a feeling known almost to mutiny prevails in several regiments in Lee's army, and it is not improbable the firing heard was caused by preventing one of them from escaping. The enemy's pickets are frequently changed. On one occasion the cavalry was substituted for the advance posts and two lines of infan try pickets were posted in their rear The frequent changes of positions of some of Lee's camps are noted probably by substituting well-known faithful regiments for those disaffected near the front.
