I am requested to communicate to you the folowing resolutions, unanimously.

I am requested to communicate to you the following resolutions, unanimously adopted by the officers and men of this regiment.
Your obedient servant,

Colonel Commanding 74th O. V. I.

Resolved, That Colonel Given be requested to communicate to the officers and crew of the steamer America, our warmest thanks, for the many acts of kindness that we have received at their hands white our board their boat.

Resolved, That we are most decidedly in favor of America, and that we are resolved to stand by her as long as a plank floats, knowing that Capt. Golding is sure to be on that plank with us.

Colding is sure to be on that plank with us.

ON BOARD STEAMER ANERICA, January 31, 1861.

Colonel Josiah Given. Commanding 74th Ohio Veteran Volunteers:

DEAR SIR—Allow me, through you, to tender to both yourself and the veteran soldiers under your command my warmest thanks for your kindness and gentlementy bearing on the present trip from Nashville to Cincinnati. Not only have yourself and officers been kind and gentle on board my boat, the America, but the public have all read of the gallant deeds you have done in the field. It has been my lot to carry many regiments on my boat since the war commenced, and I must say that the gallant regiment under your command have conducted themselves better than any I have heretofore carried, and the only one that has not done my boat some damage. Allow me once more to tender both yourself, officers and should you ever want transportation for your gallant regiment again, and the America is in port, it will afford me much pleasure to place her at your disposal. Very respectfully in port, it will anotal livery respectfully her at your disposal. Very respectfully THOS. H. GOLDING. ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES. ARRIVED. Elizabeth. St. Louis.
