

The Daily Post.

was dignifying what did not deserve it. But being assured that it was used widely and industriously to mislead people...

On returning I found to my surprise that the Protest had been signed by the Clergy in the interior, and was evidently being circulated throughout the Diocese...

The letter is now at your service, to be used in any way that you prefer. In regard to the action of your Vestry I must be permitted to suggest that it seems to me to be unnecessary and likely to be injurious...

It may appear to you that I wish to express to them my sincere hope and desire that they will reconsider their action on the subject and act for the sake of peace.

I have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient servant, A. POTTIER.

LETTER TO MESSRS. MADEIRA AND PENNOCK.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 19, 1863. Dear Sir:—Presuming that you would be glad to reply to interrogatories, addressed and proposed to be answered in candor and sincerity...

Without expressing an opinion as to the truth of all these statements, there is one thing which is notorious—we all admit to that which is justly condemned by the law of God and man.

DR. VAN DEUSEN'S REPLY. Messrs. MADEIRA AND PENNOCK: Gentlemen—Your note of the 19th has been received, and I am always grateful for any expression of regard from your parishioners...

I would put those opinions in writing, there would be an end of the whole matter; that a promise was made that I should receive a note for this purpose...

I visited an entire week for that purpose, and nothing was received—nor an allusion made to the subject. I then called another meeting when the two absent members were present, and still no reason was given for not complying with the pledge to send me a note...

Your Friend and Pastor, E. M. VAN DEUSEN.

THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC. Demonstration Across the Rappahannock. The Army of the Potomac, under the command of Gen. McDowell, was celebrated Sunday, giving the following particulars:

It was reported at Grand Station this morning that Gen. Caldwell, with his own division and another brigade of the second corps, captured a rebel captain...
