PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST, 10.1, FRIDAY, Feb. 19, 1864. Prices have advanced from 1/4 to 1c # gallon on all descriptions. The stock of Crude for askin this market is not large, and until the Alleghen river is again opened up for trade, our only receipts will be by the Allegheny Valley Railroad

Penusylvania Central Stock Market. EAST LIBERTY, Feb. 18, 1862 The extreme cold spell has put a damper upon trade generally, and cattle in particular. The receipts have been restricted, cattle hadelerice. The yards have not yet been finished. There is, however, sufficient accommodation for all that has been offered. The accommodation both for man and beast are of the very best description. When finished they will furnish better accomodation then any other yard's East or West on account of the searchy of cattle and the government demand. Prices have advanced. All good stock offered find plenty of purchasers at full rates. One lot of The veteran 1st Iudiana Artikery, 500 310 head of cattle was disposed of to Govern-rong, left on the 10th for Cincinnati on ment at $5,50 B cwt. One of our townsman made ment at $5,50 h cwt. One of our townsman made a good thing out of it, having purchosed them the previous day. The sales were only to a moderate extent. Anny, in (hina, is strongly doubted.

She could hardly have made the port of Amoy at the time she is reported to have arrived there.
