In spite of all the glowing falsehoods about the glorious financial condition of the country, so audaciously bruited to beginning to ask, one of another, with rapid pulse and whispering terror, "when will the crash come ?" Last fall Mr. CHASE, in one of his triumphant "speeches in Ohio, whilst trampling on the dejected 'copperheads,' said that now the war could and should go on, even if the currency should so expand that "a thousand dollars would be required to buy a breakfast," as in the days of continental money - Notwithstanding the abuse heaped upon Democratic statisticians last year, for saying the National Debt was 3,000 millions, THURLOW WEED now places it at 4 000 millions! and Mr. H. FORE. Surely, if Mr. CHASE, and Mr. WEED, and a chief assistant of Mr. Chase say such fearful things, we and our "honest neighbors" shall be pardoned for look ing a little, in our weak and timid way, into the fiscal condition of the country. We know there is a newspaper here that calls Comptroller McCulloch "disloyal" for writing the words quoted above. But then, we venture to say this bold denouncer would take a place in Mr. McCulloch's office as a perfect god-send, and would be glad to take his pay in any sort of currency, even if gold were at a premium of 100 per cent. Yes-"When will it come?" All observant men see that a collapse is as inevitable as death is to every living creature. Mr. WEED believes it, Mr. CHASE cannot gainsay it, and Mr. McCULend of the war-"if not before"-and

DEAR SIR -I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating eramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicines failed to relieve me While visiting some friends New York who were using Plantation Bitters they prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small wineglassful after dinner. Feeling better by degrees. in a few days I was astonished to find the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters. Respectfully,
