THE SONG OF THE SWORD. A PARODY ON THE SONG OF THE SHIRT. Weary, and wounded, and worn;
Wounded and ready to die;
A soldier they left all alone and forlorn
On the field of battle to lie.
The dead and the dying alone
Could their presence and pity afford,
Whilst with a sad and terrible tone,
He sang the Song of the Sword.

Fight! Fight! Fight!
Though a thousand fathers die;
Fight! Fight! Fight!
Though thousands of children cry;
Fight! Fight! Fight!
Whilst mothers and wives lament;
And Fight! Fight! Fight!
Whist millions of money are spent. Fight! Fight! Fight!
Should the cause be foul or fair;
Though all fint's grined is an empty name
And a las too great to bear.
An empty name and a paltry fame,
And thousands lying dead,
Whilst every glorious victory
Must raise the price of bread.

War! War! War! Fire, and sword!
Pire, and famine, and sword!
Desolate fields, and desolate towns,
And thousands scartered abroad,
With never a home and never a shed,
Whilst kingdoms perish and fail,
And hundreds of thousands are lying dead;
And all for nothing at all.

Ah! why should such mortals as I,
Kill those whom we never could hate:
This obey your commander or die—
This the law of the sword and the State;
For we are the veriest slaves
That ever had their birth,
For to please the whim of a tyrant's will is all our use upon earth.

War! War! War!
Musket, and powder and ball;
Ah' what do we fight for;
Ah' why has ewe battles at all;
The justice must be done, they say.
The nation's honor to keep.
Alas! that justice is so dear.
And human life so cheap—
Tis sad that a christian land—
A professedly christian State.
Should despise the high command,
so useful and so great,
Delivered by Christ himself on earth,
Our constant guide to be:
To love our neighbors as ourselves,
And bless our enemy.
War! War! War! War! War!

War! War! War! Misery, murder and crime, Arc all these blessings I've seen in thee, From my youth to the present time. Misery, murder and crime; Crime, misery, murder, wee! Ah! would I had known in my youngerday in my hours of toyish glee. A tenth of its misery, I now had been joining a happy band of wife and children dear, And I had died in my native land Instead of Jying here.

Weary, and wounded, and worn;
Wounded and ready to die;
A soldier they left all alone and foriorn
to the held of battle to be.
The dead and the dying alone
Could their presence and pity abord,
Whilst thus with a sad and terrible tone—
(Ah! would that these truths were more perlectly known.)

tently known.)
He sang the Song of the Sword.

Helen was to determine who carried her most easily, and I settled with my-self privately in advance, that the one who had obtained the preference would really be the person who stood highest in her affections. The reflection stimu-lated me to exert every effort, and I verily believe to this day, that I could have carried Donald and Helen on either arm like feathers But I must not anti-
