The deceased was a loving, kind and devoted husband; an affectionate and indulgent father; an active and exemplary christian, and a worthy citizen, beloved by all who knew him. He left a lonely wife and family, and a large circle of relatives and acquaintances to mourn his loss and embaim his memory with their tears. But may He who tempers the wind to the shorn lambs in mercy console the bereaved and afflicted, and may this dispensation of His Providence ever remind us of the uncertainty of life, and the necessity of constant preparation to obey his summons.
