

The Daily Post

WEDNESDAY MORNING, MARCH 16, 1864. THE RIGHT MEN AT LAST.

The intensely radical and would-be extremely pious portion of the Administration press, are still blaming upon Providence the results of their own criminal stupidity.

McCLELLAN stepped forth, and for fifteen or twenty long months we have seen the people follow him like blind men, and find no other guide.

All our reverses and disasters in Virginia were because of "God's good time" not having arrived to save us.

There is we presume, but one opinion relative to Gen. GRANT'S military operations. He has shown himself to be a great General, and why?

But according to our neighbor's theory we have nothing now to fear. The man we wanted has at length arrived, and that too in "God's good time."

Under the old system of delivering letters from post-offices when called for, much time is necessarily consumed in arranging letters in boxes for the general delivery.

UNION FEELING SOUTH

Among the late items of news from the South, we see a notice of a Union meeting held in Alabama, at which J. M. CLAYMAN presided.

The Dispatch, yesterday, disposed of our objections to the Administration sending soldiers enough from the rebel to control the New Hampshire election.

Important!!! Mr. EDITOR—It has come to my knowledge accidentally, that in various popular (and unpopular) schools in the city where good whisky is to be had, it is stated that certain persons high in "church office are about to make a "desecration."

Free Delivery of Letters. On Monday, March 11, the attention of the public is invited to the many advantages of the system of free delivery of mail matter.
