MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Fashionable ladies are often like French dishes more prized for their dressing than their substance.

Soldiers of the Potomac army complain of the immense size of stockings furnished by patriotic ladies.

An American, named Slater, has taken a contract to demolish the walls of the church in Santiago for $8,200.

The London papers say that the present income of Miss Bateman, the actress, is not less than £18,000 a year.

Mrs. Lincoln is said to be earnestly advocating the appointment of Gen. Sickles to succeed Gen Meade.

It is said that Sumner is about to introduce a resolution in the House to change the name of the United States to New Africa.

Kilpatrick Custer and Averill, our brilliant cavalry officers are all young men. Kilpatrick left West Point in the class of 1861.

Mink skins, now worth from $4 to $7 each, were formerly heavy in the market at a quarter a piece. Fashion has now adopted the mink.

A man in Albany gave a $500 piano to the Sanitary Fair—took one picket himself in the lottery, and got the piano. Lucky Dog!

Punch says a gentleman in the pit of the Adelphi Theater remarked that he very much preferred Miss Bateman's Lear to Shakspeare's

Some disloyal wag propounds the following:—"When Lincoln Abolitionism uses up the last man and the last dollar, the query arises what is to become of the bondholders?

A large portion of the radicals want somebody more radical than Mr. Lincoln as next President. They will have to dig pretty deep to find him.—Louisville Journal.

The squabble among the Abolitionists about the next Presidency is waxing malignant—a fact which promises good to the country. "When rogues fall out," &c.

The wife of General Beauregard died in New Orleans the 2d of this month. Over six thousand persons attended the funeral, and the procession was upwards of a mile in length.

Thurlow Weed thinks that the war will have cost, at its termination, at least four thousand millions of dollars, and that three-fourths of this amount will remain as a national debt.

The Supreme court of California has decided the statute constitutional, which requires attorneys to take the new oath of allegiance before they are permitted to continue practice in the California courts.

Mrs. Margaret Campbell died at the residence of her son, Armstrong township, Indiana county, a few days ago, at the advanced age of 104 years. A relation of this lady died a few years ago at the age of 101 years.

The work of raising and removing the remains of our brave soldier dead who fell at Chickamauga, Mission Ridge and Lookout, and interring them in the "Chattanooga United States Cemetery," has commenced.

It appears from a report of the late Admiral Foote just made public, that after a careful examination of several sites in the west, he recommended Cairo—not Memphis—for a naval depot, with an auxiliary at Cairo. The subject is now before Congress.

The London Times has an editorial on Gen. Banks's late orders relative to negro labor, &c. The Times says "it is the establishment of serfdom, or the retention of slavery without the name, and the design is to secure the votes of the employers for Lincoln."

A soldier boy of the 6th Ohio married a blooming Southern miss of sixteen, at Nashville, a few weeks since. She owns a plantation in her own right, but her friends, not liking the match, have spirited her away, and reduced him to despair.

Few people comprehend the great amount of sugar used annually in the United States. In 1802 there were 432,411 tons, or 864,822,000 pounds, or nearly 29 pounds to each man, woman and child, estimating the population at 30,000,000.

About one-fourth of the town of Superior, in Wisconsin, has been confiscated as belonging to disloyalists. Among others, the names of Commissioner Ould, John C. Breckinridge; and R. M. T. Hunter, appear as owners. There were eighteen rebel owners in all.

Mr. Lincoln, Mr. Chase and Gen. McClellan were nominated for the next Presidency at one of our hospitals a few days since, and the votes of the inmates taken. Of three hundred votes polled two hundred and fifty-three were for Gen. McClellan.

A call for a State Convention to meet in Louisville on the 23d of May, to choose delegates to the Chicago Peace Convention, has been signed by James Guthrie, Geo. D. Prentice, Hamilton Pope and others, who have heretofore been regarded as Union men.

A young woman named Cecilia de Jenne, a resident of Fort Smith, Arkansas having expressed disloyal sentiments, General Thayer has sent her to her father's home in Van Buren, in the same State, with orders that she be restricted to the limits of that home, and to intercourse only with her own family.

The wife of Mr. A. D. Richardson, correspondent of the New York Tribune, and now in a rebel prison in Salisbury, N. C., died suddenly in Franklin, Mass., on the 4th inst. Mr. Richardson has been a prisoner since May, 1863, and the news of his bereavement will be a crushing blow.

Havana correspondence to the 9th instant states that the war in St. Domingo drags itself wearily along, but that Spain is hurrying forward heavy reinforcements, in hopes of bringing the struggle to a close. The spirit of the Dominicans, however, is by no means subdued, and the pacification of the country seems yet a long way off.

Lieut. Col. James M. Sanderson arrived in Washington City on Saturday evening among the last batch of prisoners from Richmond. On his arrival he was notified that charges had been preferred against him by Col. Knight, that while in Libby prison he disclosed to the rebel authorities information of a plot to escape. He is under arrest in that city.

The following is an extract from a letter received by a prisoner of war on Rock Island, from his paternal ancestor somewhere in Dixie: "Come home, take the oath the first chance you git, try to git to take it to-morrow, there is no harm in it, it will only make a man of you. Dam Jeff Davis and all of his sort, him nor his money is not worth a dam nor never was nor never will be. Dont stay no longer if you can git off."

The rebel General, Prince Camille-Armand-Jerome-Bonaparte, recently reported to have left New York for Europe, is the third son of the famous and fatal minister of Charles X, by his second marriage with a daughter of the English Lord Radcliff. He is still a very young man, having been born in 1832, and is an accomplished and adventurous personage. He visited this country for the first time in 1859, as the lieutenant [illegible] in his wonderful Da[illegible]

STEAMBOATS.

Ho! for the Gold Mines of Idaho,
VIRGINIA CITY, BANNOCK CITY AND GALLATIN.

St. Louis and Fort Benton
TRANSPORTATION LINE,
For Fort Benton and the Great Falls of the Missouri.

THE NEW AND staunch light draught steamer, built expressly for the trade, will leave St. Louis for above and intermediate ports, as follows:

Steamer Benton,
SATURDAY, March 19th, at 12 m., or as soon thereafter as the River is open to Council Bluffs.

Steamer Welcome,
SATURDAY, April 2d, at 12 m.

Steamer Florence.
SATURDAY, April 16th, at 12 m.

Persons going by this Line are certain to get to the above with their goods early and without delay, as the very light draught stern wheel steamer Benton, built expressly for low water, will remain above Fort Union, (the mouth of the Yellow Stone,) during the season, and take the freight of the Welcome and Florence should it be necessary on account of low water. Each boat will be officered and manned by skillful and experienced boatmen, some of whom have explored the Upper Missouri in Mackinaw boats, and are thoroughly acquainted with its navigation. For freight or passage, or information in regard to the River, apply to J. H. GOFFLIN, at Office of United States Insurance Company, southwest corner of Main and Olive streets, or to JOHN J. ROE & CO., Convent street, St Louis, Mo. feb15
