THOO PHINADOS

Well, Mr. Speaker, how long were the Administration true to these their solemn, public, and reiterated pledges? Why, sir, just until, on the faith of these solemnia sentences a million men were induced to abandon the pursuits of peace, and rush into the armies of their country to fight in the sacred cause of Constitu tional Government. Then, when the physical arm of the Government was deemed sufficiently strong for the overthrow of the South, the mask is cut off, a new purpose and object for the war is boldly avowed and proclaimed. The hideous form and repulsive features of abolitionism were at first disguised in the deceptive and allusing garb of patriotism. It was no longer to be a war for the preservation of the Union under the Constitu tion, but in reality for its destruction, and in the forum of conscience as well as in that of the supreme law places the radicula in the attitude of rebellion and revolution.

Of the abolitionists as a party, nearly a quarter of a centuary ago the true character was happily touched off by the pencil of Henry Clay. He says: "With them the rights of property are nothing, the definiency of the powers of the General Government is nothing, the acknowledged and incontestable powers of the States are nothing. TO RESTORE THE SICK TO HEALTH.—The blood must be purified and all medicines are useless which do not possess the quality of Stimulating the blood to discharge its impurities into the bowels. Brandberth's Pills possess this quality in a high degree, and should be in every family. They are equally useful for children and adults; adapted to both sexes, and are as innocent as bread, yet most effective as a medicine.

The Hon. Jacob Beyers of Springville, Ind., writes to Dr. Brandreth under date of May 11th, 1861:

"I have used your Invaluable Vegetable Universal Pills in my family since 1838; they have always cured, even when other medicines were of no avail. I have been the means of my neighbors using hundreds of dollars' worth and I am satisfied they have received a thousand per cent. In blessed health through their use. They are used in this region for Bilious and Liver Discases, Fever and Ague, and in all rheumatic cases with the most perfect success.
