

PITTSBURGH: THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 7, 1864. NO DANGER NOW FROM FOREIGN INFLUENCE.

The first page of yesterday's Post contained some extracts from Irish papers, describing the present extraordinary exodus of their people to the United States. The extensive immigration, which has bers, has been going on for more than a productions of Ireland. present movement, among the Irish, is not confined to any particular locality, country or province; but is, as the Cork Estable and remerly indicates the prospects held out by the labor market of the Northern States. The Tralec Chronicle, also, remarks:

A gentleman whose position afford, peculiar feedities for observation regarding the movements of the peasarity; has assured us that their excitement respecting emigration exceeted all metabologies and descriptions of the peasarity; has assured us that their excitement respecting emigration exceeted all metabologies and descriptions and all metabologies and descriptions are the peasarity. The pennsylvania anthracite contrade is active, the increase of production to the 1st inst, over corresponding time last year, is 57, 409 tons.

A pew days ago $120,054 in duties was paid at the New York Custom House on an invoice of pepper, the largest amount on record.

Senator Wilson states that in his opinion we have now about forty thousand description in the discontraction regarding the movements of the peasarity, has assured us that their excitement respecting emigration exceeted all belief. Not a farmer who does not long for the movement of the peasarity, has assured us that the west have doubtle that number.

The Republicans seem to be equally of simulating since 183; they have all the west of the peasarity, has assured us that we have doubtle that number.
