Reader, it was the face, the very form of Sat-letie? Out down in youth, ruthlessly severed from earth, and torn from wile and children by the reckless and bloody hand of D. R. Anthony, the vision of the dead seemed to appeal to us We hard and answered. For we did not rest till we had searched and found the cross of Anthony: anger, and of poor Satterlee's cruel death He was editor of the Heradue-as we thought wrong in policy and principle—but mild to man-ner, gentle in disposition, and ot a kindly na-ture.  Hats and Caps. - A good-ditting, fashiona-ble hat or cap is an clement of dress that no gen-tleman can dispense with, and we know of no establishment where such articles are sold in greater perfection than at W. Fleming's, No. 139 Wood street, a few deors above Fifth. In the wholessie line, too, this house does a very large business, and on terms as favorable as any in the Wes. We therefore advise both whole-sale and retail buyers to call at 139 Wood street, feeling well assured they can be suited with just the article or articles they may need at pric-es to suit the times.

Drunken Soldiers Killed.—The Hagers-town, Md., Herald, says that three soldiers, un-der the influence of liquor, on Saturday last at-tacked the house of Robert Miles in the vitacked the house of Robert Miles in the vi-cinity of Clearspring, two of whom were killed, and one dangerously wounded, under the follow-ing circumstances: • A detachment of cavidry, on their way to Pjitjsburgh, on a furlough, while passing over the turnplks of Clearspring, allowed some of the men to straggle, thrie of them assaulting the house of Robert Mills, who lived in the vicinity. It seems they insulted his family, and threaten-ed to commit depredations on the property. A son of Mr. Mills (a Federal soldier) was at home at the time, who stood on the defence, and shet dead with a rerolver two of the party one named Jap. Ghasa, and another whose name is not known, but who went by the soubriquet of "Cap." The third, a man named Speaker, was shot quite seriously and, it is feared, mortally. All three were privates, and hailed from the vi-cinity of Pittsburgh.

cinity of Pittslungh Gen. Negley. We see it amounced that our townima, Gen. James S. Negley, and abortion of his star are in Cincinnal stopping at the Burnett House. It scens a shame to us that the War Department should persist in keeping this young and popular commander without a command, ordering him hither and thither. We know that the General desires active ser-sively that he is fully equal to therequirements of a decisive commander. The late Court of Inquiry completely exonerated Gen. Negley irom the slightest share of blame at the battle of Chicamauga, and i he cannot be restored to the command of his old, gallant, and ever reina-ble division, we trust he may soon marshal another band of equally brave men, and lead them, as he did his former command to victory. One Day's Labor .-- Mr. Brunot, the Chair man, of the Executive Committee of the Fair, has proposed that the 11th of April, the anni-vertary of the firing into Fort Sumter, be set apart as the day which the workingmen of Al-igheny county shall give its proceeds to the Fair. We suppose those interested will give the matter due consideration, and act as circum stances may dictate.

Melancholy Bereavement. — We are pain-ed to learn that 0. A. Traugh, Esq., of the Hol-lidaysburg Democratic Standard, has lost two young and interesting daughters within a period gf coa week.
