On the 2d of July, 1776, the Continental Congress passed this resolution: Resolved, That the United Colonies are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States; that they are absolved from all allegiance to the British erown, and that all the political connection between them and the State of Great Britain is and ought to be totally dissolved. This resolution was put in form in the Declaration of Independence, in which they asserted that they are, and of right ought to be, free and independent States.

In 1783, by the treaty of peace, "his Britanic majesty acknowledges the said United States, viz. New Hampshire, Massachusetts Bay, Rhode Island and Providence, Plantations, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Georgia to be free and independent States and he treats with them as such."
