LOCAL INTELLIGENCE

Who Pay the Taxes? The New York city authorities are making a study of the question of levying a tax on the corporation value of the New York City.

Another Shocking Tragedy—Truly the most shocking tragedy that has occurred in this city since the death of the late Mayor.

Recovering—Thomas Hays, whom the "Lancet" has named as the man who has recovered as to be the most successful of the men who have recovered.

What Sam shall do—The commencement of the present war, private life is being abandoned to the enjoyment of the war.

An Old Friend Dead—We regret to announce the death of the late Mayor, who died at his residence in the Fifth Avenue.

Coal land for sale—We call attention to an advertisement for sale, situated on the Pennsylvania Railroad, about ten miles from the city.

Included in the sale of the late Mayor's estate, the late Mayor's estate, the late Mayor's estate.

Removal—We have removed our establishment to No. 12 and 13th Street, on the corner of the old building.

Pay of the Police—There seems to be a very great apathy on the part of the council to do justice to the police of the city.

Patent Holders—Sancho Passa once said: "I wish the man who invented the typewriter had not done so."
