In the country and minimity demands a cossistion of hostilities." These resolutions were offered in Congress sixteen months ago, and did not produce a single irregular pulsation in the most sensitive Abolitionist within their hearing. Poor Loxa's melancholy and plaintive sentences, however, are rank treason, in the estimation of those who listened to compare the stimation of those who listened to compare the south, in the estimation of those who listened to compare the south, in the event of our being worsted in a couple of engagements.
 We have quoted enough to show the brazen studacity of the more reckless of these who are now so boisterous in their determine to be avered as the south in denificent success a few day. And the means of modering admiration in a vaim in the work so boisterous in their determine to be avered as the south in determine attract from the New York Tribune, in order to show that the brains of Aboli-
