Arrival of the Steamship Asia.

Highly Important from Europe.

HALLFAX, April 14--The steamer Asia, from Liverpool via Queenstown on the 3d, has arrived. The political news is important. The report of the destruction of the ship Com. Cranston by the Georgia is yet unconfirmed.

The increase in the Bank of England is reported at 185,000 pounds instead of 285,000.

Mr. Dayton last fall led before the French Government proofs of the real destination of vessels, after which the work was stopped by Government orders, but during the last two months, as the Opinion declares, the work has been resumed and two of the vessels are now ready to be passed over to the Confederates.

Breakfasts closed dull on Friday, and prices were weak. Provisions slightly low. Hopes were entertained of floating the steamer City of New York.

Politics to-day are unimportant. A telegram announcing Garibaldi's arrival at Southampton is momentarily expected.

QUEENSTOWN, April 13--Evening--There is a change in the position of the British army embedded on Danu's Rock. Preparations on a large scale are being made, and it is expected that the British Government has accepted the mediation of the French Government.

Conquering of the French Government.

Iron Clad War Vessels for the Rebels.

NEW YORK, April 14--The French paper of this city publishes this morning an article, taken from the Opinion Nationale, which includes official documents, and proves that the French Government is quietly conveying at the iron-clad war vessels built in France for the Confederate service.

From the reports of the French Government, it appears that the vessels sent to the Confederates have been for months at work, building iron-clad vessels for the rebels, and really for the rebel agents.

Union Convention at Knoxville.

EMANCIPATION SPEECH BY ANDY JOHNSON.

KNOXVILLE, April 13--The Rescued Convention of 1861 re-opened yesterday at the Court House. About 160 delegates were present, representing 22 counties.

The President, Mr. Nelson, on opening the Convention, made a speech, and then resigned the chair. William Haskett, chosen President, soon exciting a committee on credentials, with Mr. Haskett as chairman, to determine the loyalty of the delegates.

The matter was tabled. A business session was held, and each county was appointed which up to noon to-day. The distributing question is whether the Southern terms should be accepted as a basis for re-admitting Tennessee as a free State.

Andy Johnson, chosen President, made a speech, and a flag-staff was emancipation the spot where the rebels detained the old Liberty pole in 1861.

FIGHT AT FORT SMITH, ARK.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 14--General Sherman's expedition has reached a point five miles east of Fort Smith, on the Little Missouri river, where he expected to find the rebels.

They were met by a force of Mr. Smith's men, and a battle was fought, in which the rebels were defeated, and two pieces of artillery, and was killed with a loss of 100 killed and wounded.

Late News from Mexico.

NEW YORK, April 14--Mexico and affairs, via Havana, state that Durango had been occupied by the Imperials.

The reports of the capture of Guasacora, a French frigate, with troops, had left Vera Cruz for the Rio Grande.

Surrender of Paducah Demanded.

CAROLINA, April 14--Another demand for the surrender of Paducah, a French frigate, with troops, had left Vera Cruz for the Rio Grande.

The California Mails.

NEW YORK, April 14--The steamer Ariel has arrived from California with the California treasure and mails of March 28.
