PILES OF

TWENTY YEARS STANDING

CURED.

Below will be found a certificate from one of the most respectable citizens of Wilkins township in regard to Dr. Keyser's Lindsay' Blood Searcher. The Doctor's certificates are within reach, and no one need be deceived in regard to his preparations.

DR. GEO. H. KEYSER:—I became afflicted with Piles about twenty years ago, and every year they were growing worse, so as to trouble me very much, so much so at times as to unfit me for work. Sometimes I was so bad that I could not do anything on account of them, they came out on me as large as a hickory nut. I had tried a great deal of medicine for them. I used to buy and take whatever I could hear of or read of in circulars and pamphlets that fell in my way, but I could not get cured, sometimes they would do me some good for a little while, but afterwards they would return again as bad as ever. I also applied to two Doctors who visited me at my house and gave me some medicine but it would not do, I could not get well. Over a year ago I got an advertisement of your Lindsay's Blood-Searcher, made by yourself—when you sold it to me you told me one bottle would not cure me, and that my whole system would have to be renewed by the medicine before I got well. I bought one bottle and took it home with me and used it according to your directions. I then called to see you again, when you said I could no expect much benefit from one bottle. I bought it on one bottle at a time, until I had used five bottles. After this quantity had been used. I was entirely well of the Piles, which had tortured me for twenty years. In other respects my health is improved, and I am as well as could be expected for one of my age, being sixty years past. I have been well now for six months, and there is no appearance of a return of the disease. I can do any kind of farming work now without the Piles coming down and hurting me. I can pitch hay, chop wood, lift, or do any kind of work which before used to hurt me. When I found out your Blood-Searcher I kept on taking it until I got entirely well. I consider it my duty to make my case known to the country for the benefit of others who may be suffering as I was and do not know the value of your medicine. You may publish this if you like—I live in Wilkins Township, and will be pleased to satisfy any one of the truth of this certificate if they wish to call on me.

ELLIOTT DAVIS.

December 24th, 1863.

☞ Look out for the name of DR. GEORGE H. KEYSER on the cover of the bottle and pasted over the cork; also for his stamp on the United States stamp on the top of the bottle to prevent being imposed upon by a spurious article which is in the market.

NOTICE TO ALL CONCERNED.—Among a certain class of self-important people there is a peculiar feeling of contempt attached to all physicians that advertise and treat the diseases named in this card, (PRIVATE DISEASES,) why this should be, they nor no one else can tell. Are they not aware that all physicians treat diseases of every denomination, in fact solicit just the very diseases that are so obnoxious to these very refined parties. I suppose they would not let one of their family go to a party that has devoted years for their benefit, because he advertises the fact, and their family physician says he is a humbug so he can get the case. Often he has almost deprived the party of his life. He comes at last to the physician that advertises—how else are they to know? Are they not aware that Sir Astley Cooper, Sir Benjamin Brodie, Sir Charles Bell and M. Paul Ricord devoted years in the treatment of these diseases? These men are held up as shining lights in the medical world; I don't assert that all men are worthy that publish, still there are a great number of them that are. I have devoted myself to the study and treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES upwards of 40 years, and without egotism can say I have saved hundreds from years of misery and untimely death. My treatment is confined to the vegetable altogether, as I think it is the best and most certain. It is in my power to bring hundreds of certificates if I thought it necessary to certify to my general success, but my long residence in this city is sufficient proof without adding more. Spermatorrhea and all diseases arising from it are cured in a much shorter time than heretofore. It behooves every young man and woman to be careful in selecting a physician. The different advertisements that are seen in our papers are of no worth, and no benefit will arise from answers than only loss of health and money. Hundreds are cured annually by my new remedies. DIRECTORY OF 1864-5, and Vicinity.

PITTSBURGH & ALLEGHENY CITIES

The Ninth Volume of the Annual Series of Directories of Pittsburgh and Allegheny Cities, and vicinity, will be issued

On or Before the First of June,

And will be published in even better style than that of last year, which the publisher has no hesitation in saying, was, in the execution of all its details, superior to and printed in the United States.

The list of names will embrace the residents of

PITTSBURGH AND ALLEGHENY CITIES,

The Boroughs of

Manchester,	South Pittsburgh,
Duquesne,	Monongahela,
Lawrenceville,	Sligo,
East Birmingham,	West Pittsburgh,
Birmingham,	Sharpsburg,

AND THE VILLAGES OF

East Liberty,	Mt. Washington,
Oakland,	Temperanceville.

FITT AND COLLINS TOWNSHIPS, and those parts of the townships of

Peebles,	Reserve,
St. Clair,	Chartiers,
McClure,	&c., &c.

Adjoining the City and Borough lines from EAST LIBERTY TO WOODS' RUN.

The Advertising Department will be printed in a beautiful and attractive form, in a style altogether new, rendering business cards unusually attractive.

As in previous years, the publisher will distribute, at his own expense, free copies to from one to two hundred Hotels in the

VARIOUS WESTERN AND EASTERN CITIES AND TOWNS,

Rendering, from the peculiarly attractive style in which the advertisements will be printed, very noticeable, over a wide extent of country, the cards of such of our business men as may be inserted.

The canvassers will commence taking the names of residents on MONDAY, April, the 4th, and the publisher would here request that the inmates of each household, who may answer the enquiries of a canvasser, will furnish the name of every male adult resident with the family, also of any widow and of any woman carrying on business on her own account, to the end that the Directory may when compiled be as perfect as possible.

Each canvasser will be provided with a book on which to take orders for copies or advertisements.

Conscious that each succeeding year he has endeavored to render the Directory not only useful to the citizens, but more creditable to the city and advantageous as a medium of advertising, the publisher would ask that a liberal patronage both of subscriptions for copies and of advertising be extended this year to the publication.

The above are the revised rates of advertising as established at a late meeting of the newspaper proprietors of this city. These are but a slight advance over the old rates, and in reality are still under the figure that the stringency of the times demand. Both eastern and western publishers are much in advance of this schedule, and it is yet possible that Pittsburgh publishers may be compelled to advance the schedule still farther. The continually advancing cost of labor, paper, ink, and every essential to printing and publishing makes this action of publishers necessary and obligatory. As nothing is now made upon the subscription of newspapers, for the reasons above stated, it is required that the deficiency be made up from advertising or not at all. We hope this plain statement of the case will be reason and apology enough for our liberal and enterprising business men. They have heretofore accorded a generous patronage, and when a vital question like the present arises they will not, we know, be found holding back.

Judge Barnard's Charge to a New York Grand Jury.—Good Law and Good Sense.

AN EXTRACT.

After alluding to several subjects of local interest likely to be brought to the attention of the Grand Jury his honor said:

"For some time past it has been the constant practice of a portion of the individuals connected with the city press to stigmatize all who differed with them in their views as to any act of national administration as secessionists, with intent to degrade them in the eyes of the community by holding them out as traitors to their country, and so leave them with Arnold. This, I charge you, constitutes libel. Perhaps, in some few instances, out of thousands, a charge may be true, and publication of it be a justifiable purpose; but this does not excuse the pardoning before the world of a man as a traitor because he dissents from some views entertained by a newspaper, or ventures to doubt the propriety of some measures of the administration. Government is one thing; administration is a totaly different thing.

The theory of a republican government is that it is controlled by the will of a majority of all the people as signified through the ballot-box. If, therefore, a majority of the people should signify their will through the ballot-box that the present war should no longer be prosecuted, that majority, although they may have mistaken the true policy, cannot be justly said to be traitors to the government. It is the essence of republican freedom that every citizen should have the untrammeled right to endeavor by his vote to have those measures carried out which he considers most conducive to the welfare of his country.—But does his freedom stop here? Is he confined to dropping his silent ballot? Is his mouth gagged? Certainly not. The right to express his views by ballot carries with it the right to indulge by fair argument and persuasion, others to adopt his views. Anything which disturbs this right, whether it be by armed interference, or by printed articles, holding one up to public obloquy for entertaining any particular opinion, tends to sap the very foundation of a republic. It is for these reasons that I view the indiscriminate application of the epithet secessionist to all who do not yield implicit faith to every act of an administration—to all who do not subscribe to the particular tenets of some public journal—is extremely pernicious and deserving of your attention.

Although the right to express one's views and endeavor by argument and persuasion to win others to adopt them, is so essential to the preservation of the Government and should be sacredly guarded and kept inviolate, yet the majority have a right which is equally essential to such preservation, and should be just as sacredly guarded and kept inviolate. And this is the right that the minority shall not oppose their constitutional measures in any way other than by such expression of their views and by such endeavors by argument and persuasion to win others to adopt them. This is a right which a majority possesses at all times, and if there is any one time at which it should be more sacredly guarded than at another, now is that time, when the country is engaged in a fearful struggle. Any infraction of this right should at a time like this be visited with prompt punishment and frowned upon alike by the minority as the majority.

Neither the minority nor any portion of them have a right to furnish supplies or arms to those contending against the general Government. They may express their views as against the policy of prosecuting the war, as against any particular act or measure of the administration, but, so long as the acts and measures of the administration do not themselves tend to subvert the Government, they are bound in duty to afford a cordial support of the war and the other measures of the Government until they can produce a change of policy by the legitimate exercise of the elective franchise.

During the present conflict there have undoubtedly been, and undoubtedly still are men in the Northern States, men in the ordinary walks of life, men high in civil and military stations under the United States Government, and men high in civil positions under the State Governments, who, openly professing adherence to the United States Government, have secretly done all in their power to give material aid to the Southern rebellion, and to obstruct and weaken the military plans of the Government: some by running the blockade; some by furnishing worthless arms ammunition and vessels, with the hope and desire that by reason of such worthlessness the Southern forces may obtain an advantage over the Northern armies; some by seducing and persuading men not to enlist; some by placing obstructions, even to the extent of preventing by force, in the way of the Government procuring men. These are all traitorous acts, and should meet with the censure of all, and adequate punishment.

Again, some by so fraudulently fulfilling contracts as to make the Government pay an exorbitant rate for the articles furnished, do, in fact, render aid to the Southern rebellion by diminishing the resources of the Government for carrying on the war. These last may perhaps never have viewed their acts in this light. But their conduct, irrespective of the fraud, is highly reprehensible; for at a time when their Government needs all their support they should, instead of seeking to amass large wealth at the expense of the depletion of the Governmental treasury, take and fulfil their contracts at reasonable living rates. More especially reprehensible are those devoid of humanity, added to this privation, toil and hardship of the soldiers risking his life in the battle field for the cause of the Union, and the discomfort arising from the want of raiment, by furnishing under contract clothing of such flimsy material as would not stand a week's wear.

I do not mean to be understood by my remark, that the majority of the people should vote to discontinue the war their will would have to control, as intimating that in my view any such event is likely to occur; upon the contrary, I am of the opinion that the people of the North have determined that this rebellion shall be subdued at all hazards, and that the Union shall not be dissolved in any event. This feeling, however, is prevalent, and daily growing stronger, that the mode of conducting the warmust be changed. The removing by political arts for political purposes of tried and experienced generals, and the substitution in their places of others either vastly their inferiors or wholly incompetent must be stopped.

Again I say that if this war is to be brought to any successful and speedy termination, the administration instead of opposing them to greater or equal, or even somewhat inferior forces, and then tiring the patience and wasting the strength of the North, should direct a levy en masse of all capable of bearing arms in order that by distributing the burden of a few
