Horrible.—On Friday sinht last, a fire broke out in a house occupied by a family named Mc-Mann, in Tarport, Pa. The parents occupied one room, and four children another. The flames spread before the family awoke. On awaking the father attempted to rescue one of the children but was suffocated before leaving the fosse, and, with the child, was burned. The mother attempted to arouse the other children, but could not rescue them, and, with them, was suffocated. Thus the whole family of six were burned with the building.

A Graceless Larceny.—A thoughtful family living in Allegheny, having very good taste in the matter of the creature comforts of life, had prepared on Saturday siner. During the right, however, a graceless and dishonest extended and with the diding the right, however, a graceless and dishonest extended and the prize was sticred, and having bored a hole in the door sufficiently large to get his hand in, turned back the bolt, and thus having effected an eutrance, carried off the entire Sunday's dinner aforesaid, leaving the family in the middle family of six were burned with the building.
