It is in consequence of these facts that Mr. Dayton, and the government that he represents, has been deceived and overreached on every side by the southern embassadors. Even before the arrival of Mr. Slidell in Paris, the agents of the South there had made such representations to the Emperor of the power, resources, and determination of the southern people as caused the Emperor to take the initiative in recognizing the "southern confederacy" as "a belliger the other places where railroad in Georgia to Washington by the ministers of France at Washington by the ministers of France and England.
