without effect. Finding the sore extending, I called on Dr. Ely, of Shalishing, who pronounced to CANCER, and prescribed a wash of sugar of lead and bread, Poulties. Finding these remedies of no avail, I called upon Dr. Shafet, of Davidsville, Somerset county, who also pronounced the disease Cancer, and gave, me internal and external remedics—the latter consisting principally of causite—but all to no purpose as the disease continued spreading toward the noise.

I next used a preparation of arenic, in the form of salve. This for a time checked the disease Cancer, and applied a salve, said to be a never
