- HOMO edi sul STANDURGH. MONDAY MOMNING, MAY 9, 1864

A POLITICAL PREMIER EXPOSED. On the 24th of February last, Hon. Join L. DAWSON, & presentative from the Favette county district, delivered in Gongress, one of the very few able specthes which have, this session, been heard in the United States House of Representatives. It was a magnificent effort, calm, forcible and statesmanlike. A few days after Mr. DAWSON's speech appeared, our representative Gen. Moon-HEAD, undertook to reply to it, but his attempt ives a most signal and lamentable. afailure. In reply to DAWSON'S thoughtful argument, full of reflection and decised in stately rhetoric, the House of Representatives was inflicted by again under the hated Yankee domina-Moonwant with an hour's slang and twaddle, about sympathisers with treasony antersporsed with positive false-
